The image illustrates the adaptability of a library's digital services. It shows a desktop browser view of a search results page on the left, a smartphone displaying the mobile version of the same search results in the center, and a desktop view of a book's details page on the right. The search results on the left include titles like "Treatment of bipolar children and adolescents" and "The metabolic syndrome in clinical practice". The smartphone screen shows search results for "civil war lincoln" with 7,335 results, listing books like "Battle cry of freedom : the Civil War era" and "The Civil War : an illustrated history". The details page on the right shows a book cover for "The Metabolic Syndrome in Clinical Practice".
