FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Black Lives Matter | Special Edition Omaha Table Talk

OMAHA, NE, July 20, 2016 - Inclusive Communities will host a special edition of its monthly Omaha Table Talk, Black Lives Matter at the University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO) Barbara Weitz Community Engagement Center (Weitz CEC). Black Lives Matter sheds light on the issues surrounding the discussion of race in relation to the Black Lives Matter Movement.

The event is open to the public (age 15 or older), beginning at 12 P.M. until 1:30 P.M. in Weitz CEC rooms 205 and 209. Attendees are required to register for this event at <https://orgsync.com/85418/events/1497192/occurrences/3405966>.

Registered attendees will be able to park in Weitz CEC visitor parking Lots E and D by using the GPS address 6400 S., University Drive N., Omaha, NE 68182. Refreshments and pizza will be available for registered attendees, provided by the Weitz CEC.

Omaha Table Talk is an Inclusive Communities program. Inclusive Communities believes these discussions lead to a greater understanding of differences and foster respect, which help eliminate prejudice and inequities in our community. Inclusive Communities is a human relations organization confronting prejudice, bigotry and discrimination through educational programs that raise awareness, foster leadership and encourage advocacy for a just and inclusive society.

Unless otherwise clearly stated, any views or opinions expressed as part of events at the Weitz CEC should not be viewed as endorsements by UNO and do not reflect the official position of UNO or the University of Nebraska system.
