Accounting internships are available in a wide variety of organizations, including for-profit companies, public accounting firms, government, and not-for-profit organizations.

Most internship positions are posted on UNO Career Connect.

Log in frequently to see recently posted internships along with summer leadership opportunities and full-time career positions.

Students should create a Career Connect account and upload a current resume and transcript. The CBA Career Development Coordinator and the Accounting Internship Coordinator are available to help with any Career Connect or resume questions. Students might also find positions through family or friends or by visiting company websites.

Up to 3 hours of academic credit may be earned for an accounting internship. See the FAQ link below for information on whether and how to apply for academic credit.
