This sixth edition of the University of Nebraska at Omaha Fact Book has been designed to present a variety of information and data, about the University, in a concise, easily used format. I hope this provides a profile of UNO that will expand your understanding of our institution.

I wish to thank the many individuals and departments at the University for their contributions to the Fact Book. Sources for the data are listed at the bottom of each table and illustration, and the cooperation of these sources made the project possible.

Finally, again we solicit your comments and suggestions on the Fact Book so future issues will be more helpful to you.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA AT OMAHA
GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

The primary purposes of the University of Nebraska at Omaha are, first, to maintain a faculty of dynamic teacher-scholars of high character and competence who will inspire able and willing students to achieve to the maximum of their abilities and, second, to provide classroom, laboratory, and library facilities adequately equipped to produce an environment conducive to learning of the highest order.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

With a student body of more than 15,000, the University of Nebraska at Omaha strives to treat each student as an individual, giving constant attention to the student's background, problems, and aspirations. Ample opportunity is provided for specialized study in terms of interest, talent, and ultimate vocational objective. Thus, the University is concerned that its graduates be good citizens who earn a better living and live a richer, fuller life.

A university may well be judged by the success of its graduates. In the half century since its founding, the University has furnished Omaha, the state of Nebraska, and the nation with graduates of sound intellectual training and strong character.

The University of Nebraska at Omaha is the administrative home of six colleges: Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Continuing Studies, Education, Fine Arts, and Public Affairs and Community Service. In addition, two colleges administered by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, (Engineering and Technology and Home Economics) have a substantial in-residence program on the campus. Finally, at UNO there is a full range of graduate programs under the administrative aegis of the University-wide Graduate College.

The University, in addition to offering courses for college credit, designs training courses for thousands of business and industrial employees; provides in-service training for elementary and secondary school teachers; conducts television classes for college credit on both commercial television and its own educational channel (KYNE-TV); and sponsors a wide variety of conferences, workshops, lectures, and fine art events to enrich the college credit offerings.

The University of Nebraska at Omaha is a commuter campus, and has no on-campus housing for students.

ACCREDITATIONS

The University of Nebraska at Omaha is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and has programs which are accredited or approved by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, the National Council on Social Work Education, the Engineers Council for Professional Development, the American Home Economics Association (for undergraduate programs), the American Dietetic Association, the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business, the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration, the American Chemical Society, and the National Association of Schools of Music. Its courses are accepted for purposes of teacher certification by the Nebraska State Department of Education.

Course credits from the University of Nebraska at Omaha are accepted by other colleges and universities which are members of the North Central Association and by other regional accrediting agencies.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA AT OMAHA
HISTORY

What is now the University of Nebraska at Omaha was founded in 1908 as the University of Omaha, a private non-sectarian college, with a campus at 24th and Pratt Streets in northeast Omaha. The first term of the co-educational college began in 1909, under the leadership of Dr. Daniel E. Jenkins, with twenty students.

The movement to make the University a municipal institution began in 1929, and in May, 1930 the citizens of Omaha voted to establish the Municipal University of Omaha. In the summer of 1930, the Omaha Board of Education selected the first University Board of Regents who were inducted into office on July 1, 1930. In January, 1931 the new Board of Regents took over the University of Omaha and its properties.

The expansion of the Municipal University of Omaha in the early 1930's led to a decision to move the campus to a 52-acre site southwest of Dodge and 60th Streets. In November 1936, the University secured a grant from the Works Progress Administration which, together with some accrued building funds, financed the construction of a Georgian-style building. This building, now called Arts and Sciences Hall, was finished in 1938 and served as the sole campus building until the 1950's.

In July 1968, the citizens of Omaha voted to transfer all University property to the University of Nebraska, and the former Municipal University of Omaha became the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

The University began rapid growth when it became a part of the University of Nebraska System. Enrollment was 8,730 in Fall, 1967 which was the last year as the Municipal University of Omaha. Three years later, enrollment was 13,185, a growth of 51 percent in the first three years as the University of Nebraska at Omaha. By Fall, 1982, enrollment had reached 15,565.

The Dodge Street campus has grown from its original 52 acres to its present 88.5 acres. Recent major new buildings on the Dodge Street campus have been the Performing Arts Center; College of Business Administration Building; University Library; Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Building; and Science Building. The Peter Kiewit Conference Center was recently opened in downtown Omaha.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY
General Information

The University Library, a three-level building built in 1975 and located at the west end of the campus, offers many services to its users and contains materials and facilities for study and research. The collection includes approximately 500,000 volumes, over 1,000,000 microform items, and 4,500 pieces of audio-visual material. The total number of serials subscribed to is over 5,000, including almost 200 newspapers from around the world. As a government document depository, the University Library collects most federal and Nebraska state publications and also has documents from some other states and from the United Nations. Nearly all of the Library's collection is on open shelves and is arranged according to the Library of Congress classification system.

Non-Credit Programs

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA AT OMAHA

College of Continuing Studies

The College of Continuing Studies (CCS) at UNO offers both credits and non-credit activities for persons wishing to continue their education. The College offers an extensive schedule of evening, summer, and off-campus credit classes for those who must work, but wish to pursue a college degree. CCS offers the Bachelor of General Studies degree, as well as non-credit programs and courses for those who have special interests. Conferences and institutes are offered, serving local and national professional groups and associations, and business, academic, and community needs.

Center for Applied Urban Research

The Center for Applied Urban Research (CAUR) provides professional services, including research and field studies, technical assistance, and educational programs, to communities and organizations. The Center also publishes a monthly review of their research and statistical findings that may be of interest to the public and various groups.

The Center for Urban Education, a part of the Center for Applied Urban Research, is an off-campus laboratory which focuses on economic, social, and educational problems of low-income areas and provides opportunities for students to tutor, attend scheduled classes, and become acquainted with the problems of both urban and rural low-income areas. The staff interacts with agencies and residents of low-income areas and participates in an interdisciplinary outreach of the University.

Nebraska Business Development Center

The Nebraska Business Development Center (NBDC) was founded in 1977 as one of eight pilot centers, known then as the University Business Development Centers. Since 1978, NBDC basic service centers have been established at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, Kearney State College, Wayne State College, and Chadron State College. The statewide coordination is provided through the Omaha center, located in UNO's College of Business Administration.

NBDC delivers management and technical assistance through its own staff, faculty of its member institutions, faculty of other colleges in the state, and through consultants from the private sector. NBDC's consulting services have focused on marketing management and financial management. There also has been substantial demand for marketing research and financial forecasting.

Through its workshops and seminars, NBDC provides the Nebraska business community continuing education in business management. The program for workshops and seminars is managed from the Omaha NBDC office.

In addition to its consultation and training programs, NBDC maintains support services for the benefit of both small business owners and its consultants and trainers. These include:

1. NBDC Report, which is a management brief published monthly and distributed to more than 20,000 business owners and managers in Nebraska;
2. A comprehensive small business library maintained at the NBDC office in Omaha;
3. Legal Aspects of Doing Business in Nebraska, a comprehensive guide for the business owner in Nebraska.

The Nebraska Business Development Center has received national recognition for two special programs designed to reach special segments of the community, the Rural Communities Program and Women in Business.

Performance data for NBDC in 1985 show 165 training programs delivered to 48 communities with about 5,200 participants. There also were 396 long-term consulting cases and 769 short-term (more than one hour, less than 12 hours) consulting cases in 1985. In a 1984 evaluation study involving some 350 business clients of NBDC services to other businesses.
