— James Baldwin

The UNO Libraries Friends of Distinquished Service Award and GLAAD Scholarship Winners

Congratulations to the recipients of the Friends of Distinquished Service Award and GLAAD Scholarship.

The Queer Omaha Archives

The Queer Omaha Archives is a project that aims to preserve and promote the history of LGBTQIA+ individuals and organizations in Omaha. The archives are supported by donations from community members and serve as a resource for education and research.

The Queer Omaha Archives distributes oral history interviews, oral history transcripts, and other materials to researchers, students, and the general public. The archives are also available online through the UNO Libraries website.

The Queer Omaha Archives is a project of UNO Libraries and is supported by donations from community members.

The UNO Libraries Continuity Plan

In the event of a disaster, UNO Libraries will continue to provide access to library services and resources. This plan outlines the steps that will be taken to ensure the continued operation of the library during a disaster.

The UNO Libraries Continuity Plan is available on the UNO Libraries website.
