4Foundation Center Directory Online

This service is now available in the SPR Office (EAB 202). The directory allows for web-based searching of funding opportunities from the 10,500 largest foundations in the nation. The most recent update contains 1,700 foundations new to the service.

Foundation records include financial data, contact information, and application guidelines for listed foundations. There are also more than 450 links to foundation Web sites and 35,850 sample grants. The Foundation Directory Online is updated on a quarterly basis, ensuring that you have access to the most current, accurate, and useful information.

In PDF and Word format for either Mac or IBM compatibles.

Just a reminder that the interactive PDF format allows you to print, but not to save the document. If you need to do so, you should use the interactive MSWord templates.

New Graduate Assistant in SPR

Jason Sonnenfelt has joined the Office of Sponsored Programs and Research as a graduate assistant in May of 2000. He is currently working towards his Master's Degree in Public Administration from the College of Public Affairs and Community Service.

Jason is returning home to Nebraska after studying abroad for two years in China and then attending college in St. Paul, Minnesota. He received a Bachelor's Degree in History with a Political Science minor from Macalester College. He's done a little bit of everything and his hobbies range from karaoke to rugby.

Jason's duties include assisting faculty in their search for funding information and opportunities, maintaining the SPR webpage, editing the UCR and SPR newsletters, and other office duties.

SPR Summer Hours

We'll be here from 7:30am to 4:30pm, Monday through Friday.

Now is the best time to get started on grant proposals!
