UNIVERSITY OF OMAHA

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The University of Omaha became a municipal university in 1930, but its history as an educational institution began more than twenty years earlier.

In 1908 through the efforts of a group of far-sighted citizens, the University of Omaha was incorporated as a coeducational, non-sectarian college. The first college term opened in September, 1909, under the leadership of Dr. Daniel E. Jenkins, first president. The original campus was located at 24th and Pratt Streets.

The University grew rapidly in these early years. Its physical plant was developed through the acquisition of additional properties. The John Jacobs Memorial Gymnasium, a gift of Mrs. M. O. Maul, and Joslyn Hall, a gift of Mr. George A. Joslyn, were the major buildings.

The movement to make the University a municipal institution began in 1928. In that year the Legislature of Nebraska passed an act authorizing cities of the metropolitan class to establish and maintain municipal universities.

The citizens of Omaha voted on May 6, 1930, to establish the Municipal University of Omaha. In the summer of 1930, the Omaha Board of Education selected the first University Board of Regents, which was inducted into office on July 1, 1930. In January, 1931, the new Board of Regents took over the old University of Omaha and its properties.

In November, 1936, the University received a grant from the Public Works Administration. This grant, together with accrued building funds, financed in 1937-38 the erection of a modern educational structure of Georgian style on the permanent, fifty-one acre site south of Dodge Street at 60th, adjacent to Elmwood Park. In 1949 the $750,000 Field House, Stadium and playing fields were completed, providing indoor and outdoor facilities in all sports.

The library is located in the northeast wing of the University building. Two reading rooms on the second floor provide seating space for more than 200 students.

The general book collection of over 85,000 volumes is housed in two stack levels directly below the reading rooms. The book stacks are open to all graduate students and to undergraduates by special permission. The Library’s holdings have been carefully chosen to answer both the curricular and general reading interests of the students. A well-balanced reference collection, located in the west reading room, is supplemented by timely pamphlet files and other special aids.

In addition to the general book collection, the Library contains approximately 15,000 government documents. The University of Omaha has been a United States government document depository since 1939 and has acquired a substantial file of older documents through purchase.

The Library receives 400 current periodicals. Bound files of these journals are housed in the east reading room and in the book stacks. The Library has a file of the Omaha World-Herald and the New York Times on microfilms and possesses a Recordak reader for the reading of these and other microfilms.

An open shelf collection of over twelve hundred books for recreational reading is maintained in the Fore Memorial Browsing Room on the third floor. Comfortable furniture, attractive surroundings, and a wide selection of books serve as a stimulus for broadening reading interests. A readers’ advisor in charge of the room is ready at all times to counsel with students regarding their reading problems and interests.

Since the University of Omaha became a municipal institution, important advances have been achieved in faculty personnel, curricular reforms, administrative organization, laboratories, and in library facilities, under the presidencies of W. E. Sealock and Rowland Haynes.

In February, 1948, the Board of Regents announced the appointment of Dr. Philip Milo Bail as president of the University of Omaha. Dr. Bail came to the University from Butler University where he was Dean of the College of Education and Director of the University College.

UNIVERSITY SERVICES

BUREAU OF TEACHING AIDS

This service is designed to assist faculty and students in procurement, distribution, utilization, and evaluation of audio-visual materials and equipment. It is particularly valuable to students who are planning to go into the teaching profession.

There is increasing need for each of the services of the Bureau: (1) To provide information, materials, and equipment to University faculty and classes; (2) To provide photographic services, including darkroom facilities for photographic classes and student publications; (3) To schedule and arrange appropriate displays in the exhibit cases; (4) To provide a graphic arts service; (5) To provide pre-service and in-service training in audio-visual education for teachers and education students; (6) To provide audio-visual materials to schools and community groups.

BOOK STORE

Textbooks and supplies necessary for classes taught in the University of Omaha are sold in the Book Store to University of Omaha students and faculty only. Clerks may require students to show identification cards at any time, and the Book Store Manager may refuse to sell merchandise which he has reason to believe is going to non-students or non-faculty members of the University of Omaha.

Used books may be left at the Book Store "on consignment." Sale of such books will be made as soon as possible at the price asked by the owner. A commission of 10 per cent will be retained by the Book Store and the balance remitted to the student.

All sales in the Book Store are on a strictly cash basis. No books or supplies may be charged.

PLACEMENT SERVICE

Students desiring employment should register in Room 274. In addition to assigning all student assistantships and other student work on the campus, the Placement office is maintained to assist students in selecting suitable vocations, in developing successful interview techniques, and in obtaining career jobs.

Part-time jobs that fit into class schedules may require considerable time to arrange. Applications should be made well in advance. The Placement Office makes an active effort to obtain employment for all students desiring jobs. It cannot, however, guarantee to secure employment for every student.

Students interested in teaching positions should register with the Placement Office at least one semester before they plan to go to work, as extensive confidential credentials must be prepared for the informa-
THE GRADUATE DIVISION

Mrs. Homan, Chairman; Ms. Garlough, Mr. Gorman, Mr. Hill, Mr. Sullenberg, Mr. W. H. Thompson, Mr. Wardle

The Graduate Division of the University of Omaha was established in 1942 to provide the opportunity for advanced study and independent investigation in a limited number of fields of learning for qualified students:
1. To earn graduate credit for the renewal of teachers' certificates.
2. For professional advancement and cultural objectives.
3. To work toward a Master of Arts or Master of Science in Education degree.

ADMISSION TO GRADUATE STUDIES

Graduates of any accredited college or university may be admitted to the Graduate Division of the University. Admission to the Graduate Division, however, is not the equivalent to acceptance as a candidate for a Master's degree.

A graduate of an unaccredited college may be admitted to the Division on a provisional basis. He may later be admitted to graduate status if he passes certain examinations and the quality of his work is of sufficient merit.

For graduate work in education, the student must have had at least fifteen semester credit hours in undergraduate courses in education or the equivalent.

Students who wish to pursue graduate work at the University will file application for admission to the Graduate Division with the Chairman of the Committee on Graduate Studies on a form provided for that purpose.

After the student has successfully completed nine semester hours of graduate work, and has passed the required examinations, or submitted an inventory statement acceptable to his adviser and the Committee on Graduate Studies, he may apply for admission to candidacy for the Master's degree. This preliminary examination must be passed or inventory statement submitted and approved prior to registration for further courses in the degree program.

DEGREES

Graduate study at the University may be directed toward the traditional degrees Master of Arts or Master of Science in Education. Degrees are granted at the June and August Commencements.

THE MASTER OF ARTS DEGREE

Graduate study in psychology, education, sociology, English and history and government; and minor studies in mathematics and the sciences, ordinarily lead to the degree of Master of Arts.

THE MASTER OF SCIENCE IN EDUCATION DEGREE

This degree is designed primarily for the master teacher, supervisor, or administrator. It is granted upon the completion of a program of advanced study to students who are working professionally in the field of education.

The student's program will consist of thirty semester credit hours, always including Education 501G, Educational Research, as a first course and Education 550G, Seminar, as the last course, and will usually be arranged to conform to the following general pattern:
1. Eighteen to twenty-one semester hours in major field of specialization, such as: elementary education, secondary education, educational administration, special education and guidance.
2. Nine to twelve semester hours in a minor field.

The patterns of courses cover three areas: professional education, specialized teaching fields, and general education.

Professional education may include administration, supervision, secondary education, elementary education, special education, educational guidance, and nursing education.

The course program will be determined by the student and adviser and submitted to the Committee on Graduate Studies for approval.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

Transfer of Credit—Ordinarily credit at the graduate level from other institutions is not granted to apply toward a Master's degree at the University. However, students may arrange in advance, with the approval of their advisor and the Committee on Graduate Studies, for not to exceed six hours graduate study in another institution, when such study brings desirable enrichment or specialized courses to the student's graduate program.

Residence Requirements—A minimum of thirty semester credit hours in residence, or equivalent, is required for granting of the Master's degree, except as provision is made for transfer of credit. No credit will be allowed for correspondence work.

Conditional Admission—A student who is within three semester hours of having completed all requirements for the Bachelor's degree at the University of Omaha may be provisionally admitted to graduate studies.

Scholastic Standing—A grade of "B" or better must be earned in required credit hours of graduate work if these credits are to count toward the Master's degree.

Study Load—A student is expected to register for not more than the equivalent of one semester credit of work per week. Courses which are available for graduate credit are those which are especially approved by the Committee as of graduate character or upper-division courses which have been approved by the graduate advisers as an integral part of a special graduate program. Students taking upper-division undergraduate courses for graduate credit are expected to do supplementary work in the course under the direction of the instructors of the course.

The Graduate Seminar—A series of graduate seminars may be arranged each year. These usually will meet once a month. All active graduate students, except those taking the Master of Science in Education degree, are expected to participate in these seminars. Those taking the Master of Science in Education degree will take Education 590, Educational Seminar.

Time Limits—In evaluating credits earned toward an advanced degree, credits dating back five years or more are subject to reduction in value as determined by the Committee on Graduate Studies. Once a student has been admitted to candidacy for the degree, he is expected to have completed the requirements for the degree within a period of five years or validate previous credits with additional course study.

EXAMINATIONS AND FEES

Final written examinations for students taking the Master of Science in Education degree will be given as announced. Master of Arts students should consult with their advisors for arrangements to take the final written comprehensive examination. It should be taken at least sixty days prior to the convocation at which the degree is to be granted.
Theses prepared by Master of Arts students shall be submitted at least six weeks before the date of the oral examination. The student and his adviser shall arrange a date with the Chairman of the Committee on Graduate Studies for the final oral examination. This examination shall be held at least thirty days before the date of convocation at which it is expected that the degree will be granted. Oral examinations cannot be scheduled during the period between the close of the first term of the summer session and the beginning of the following fall semester.

Student fees are payable in full at the time of registration, and registration is not complete until fees are paid. The University reserves the right to change the amount of fees or to add new ones at any time if such action is deemed necessary. Fees vary with the number of hours of classroom and laboratory work taken.

Graduate matriculation (not refundable) $5.00
Registration fee, each term (not refundable) 1.00
Tuition fee, per credit in course 8.00
Non-resident fee per credit in course 4.00
Thesis binding fee (including rental of cap, gown, hood) 15.00

Information—Further information may be secured at the Office of the Chairman of the Committee on Graduate Studies, Room 184.

Courses numbered 400, offered primarily for graduate credit, are open to seniors and graduates. Courses numbered 300 are open to graduate students for graduate credit only upon approval of the department head, the major adviser, and the Committee on Graduate Studies. Graduate students should consult the Chairman of the Committee on Graduate Studies and the head of the major department before registering.

REFUND SCHEDULE
Refunds are figured from the date application is received, not from date of withdrawal from courses.

No refunds will be made on matriculation, registration, late registration, health fee, physical education locker fee, or student activity fee, unless such charges have been made through an error of the University Administration.

A student must file notice of withdrawal from any class, accompanied by written approval of the adviser and the Dean, with the Registrar immediately upon dropping any course.

No part of the laboratory fees will be refunded except upon written recommendation of the head of the department.

Students paying tuition on an installment basis who withdraw before the account is paid in full are not relieved from payment of the amount due; credits to their unpaid accounts will be made only on the basis of the schedule listed below.

A student dropping courses with the approval of the adviser and Deans or the Director of the School of Adult Education will receive refunds on tuition, non-resident tuition, and other fees in accordance with the following schedules:

DEFINITION OF NON-RESIDENT STATUS

The Board of Regents' rules provide that the non-resident fee shall be assessed and collected each semester from:

1. All students who actually reside outside the city of Omaha.
2. Students who are under twenty-one years of age, unmarried, and whose parents or legal guardians live and maintain their place of domicile outside the city limits of Omaha.
3. Students living in Omaha whose parents or legal guardians live outside the City of Omaha, but who have reached their twenty-first birthday and have not qualified to vote in Omaha, or who have not furnished other satisfactory evidence of bona fide residence.

Note: a. Residence of a wife follows that of the husband.
b. Residence status shall be determined at the time of each registration. A change of circumstances during the semester does not justify an adjustment of fees during the semester.
c. In case a legal resident of the City of Omaha is appointed guardian of a minor, the residence of such minor for the purpose of this rule shall be considered established in the City of Omaha unless such legal guardian is appointed solely for the purpose of avoiding the payment of non-resident tuition to the University of Omaha.
d. Proof of residence status rests with the student whenever he challenges assessment of the non-resident fees. Payment of such fees may not be postponed pending decision of any case, but fees shall be refunded to the student if it is later found that they have been collected through error. Willful misstatement or concealment of any facts to influence the decision of a non-resident case is cause for immediate dishonorable dismissal from the University.
