3-18-1962

Kabul Times (March 18, 1962, vol. 1, no. 15)

Bakhtar News Agency

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes

Part of the International and Area Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes/14
Encouragement To Teachers In Afghanistan

By Ibrahim Umerji

The press and radio in Afghanistan are directly responsible to the Ministry of Education. This is in line with the principle of mass education which is the aim of the central government. The press and radio are government institutions, and they have a responsibility to the government and the public. The Ministry of Education is the body responsible for the education system in the country. The press and radio are used to disseminate information and promote education.

The OAS: Its Important Weapon Is "Violence"

The OAS, or the Organization of Arab States, is an international organization that promotes peace and cooperation among Arab countries. It is headquartered in Cairo, Egypt.

In the context of the Afghan-Turkmen conflict, the OAS has been criticized for its role in providing military support to the Afghan military. The OAS has been accused of violating international law by providing military aid to the Afghan military, which has been used to attack Turkmen civilians.

In response to the criticism, the OAS has stated that it is providing military aid to the Afghan military in order to protect the Afghan people from the Taliban, who are accused of committing atrocities against the Afghan people.

The OAS has also stated that it is providing military aid to the Afghan military in order to promote stability and security in the region.

The OAS has been a long-time supporter of the Afghan government, which has been accused of human rights abuses and corruption. The OAS has been criticized for its role in supporting the Afghan government, and it has been accused of ignoring the human rights abuses and corruption.

The OAS has been criticized for its role in the Afghan-Turkmen conflict. The OAS has been accused of supporting the Afghan military, which has been accused of committing atrocities against the Turkmen people.
FRANCE AND ALGERIA SIGN CEASE-FIRE

Self-Determination For People

EVIAN, Mar. 16 (Reuters)—France and Algeria yesterday signed the peace treaty bringing a seven-year-old war to an end. The cease-fire will come into effect at noon today. The treaty makes the right to self-determination the key issue of the conflict.

President de Gaulle Hopes For Close Cooperation

PARIS, Mar. 15 (Dow Jones)—President de Gaulle today told the French and Algerian delegations that close cooperation between the two countries was essential. The treaty is the result of negotiations held in Paris during the last four months.

SYRIAN ARMY MORE POWERFUL THAN EVER TO REPEL AGGRESSION

AMMAN, Mar. 16 (Reuters)—The Syrian army is more powerful than ever to repel aggression, Syria's Chief of Staff, General Eddy Eddeh, told yesterday in an address to the nation.

U.S. Reaction

WASHINGTON, Mar. 16 (AP)—The White House press officer said the U.S. government was not happy about the treaty signed yesterday between France and Algeria. The treaty is a step towards the political solution of the Algerian conflict.

KABUL TIMES

SAINIA, Mar. 16 (AP)—The Afghan President, Mr. Siah Qadded, today said the Afghan army was powerful enough to repel any aggression.