DEANS’ FORUM SUMMARY
September 3, 2009

1. Guest: Lori Byrne, Vice President, UN Foundation

- Update on opening the public phase of the campaign—Oct. 16
- Request for deans to think about having a college-level cabinet that can help with development. Lori requested deans provide a list of 8-10 names each with several from that group being identified at a later date to help with the campaign.
- UNO brochures being developed. Request for colleges to think about developing brochures

2. Guests: Rory Weaver, NeSIS Project Manager
   Mark Goldsberry, UNO NeSIS Project Manager
   Jason Blohm, Assistant Director, Recruitment Services, UNO NeSIS Team Director

- Update on the overall scope and state of the project
- Group noted that UNO’s contributions have been integral to the success of the project
- A general timeline was shared about when the different components of the SIS system will be deployed
- Group stated that the transition will be uncomfortable for a lot of people in the initial stages but the ultimate payoff will be worth the effort.
- SVC Hynes suggested focusing on specific ways in which the new system will make things easier to accomplish.
