The University of Nebraska Omaha assists students who need one-on-one attention in a variety of disciplines including math, written and verbal communication. We also provide support for students who are active duty military and veterans.

Math Lab

The Math Lab combines cutting edge technology with weekly lectures and unlimited one-on-one tutoring to help students learn mathematics. Students succeed in the Math Lab by carefully following our program on their daily schedules and by actively participating in the "activity" of mathematics.

Math-Science Learning Center

The Math-Science Learning Center (MSLC) is a place where UNO students can find the assistance they need to conquer academic challenges in Math and Science. Model students serve as tutors, supplemental instruction leaders and study group facilitators trained to assist their peers in achieving academic success. The MSLC houses meeting alcoves, study/tutoring space, tutorial computers and reserve study materials. It also offers academic consultation for students seeking to increase their overall learning effectiveness and efficiency.
