Service Learning Academy

The University of Nebraska Omaha (UNO) Service Learning Academy works in collaboration with nonprofit community organizations, governmental agencies, and P-12 faculty.

Projects are implemented that serve the community and create valuable learning experiences for UNO students. Students' learning goes beyond the classroom as they apply their knowledge to real-life situations in the community.

Reflection activities before, during, and after each project facilitate critical thinking and problem solving skills.

The integration of academic knowledge with a service learning experience prepares students to work and serve in an increasingly diverse and challenging environment

What Is Service Learning?

Service Learning is a method of teaching that combines classroom instruction with meaningful community service. This form of learning emphasizes critical thinking and personal reflection while encouraging a heightened sense of community, civic engagement, and personal responsibility.
