UNO Libraries Selected for Competitive Federal Humanities Grant

UNO Libraries has been selected as one of 200 libraries nationwide for the American Library Association's American Rescue Plan: Humanities Grants for Libraries opportunity, an emergency relief program to assist libraries that have been adversely affected by the pandemic.

With funding from the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) through the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021, UNO Libraries will use funds to anchor itself in the community as a strong humanities institution. The competitive award comes with a $10,000 grant that will help the library deliver excellent programs and services related to culture, history, literature, and other humanities subjects.

Click the 'Learn more' button to view information on other libraries that were chosen to win this grant, what we are using this grant money for, and about the American Rescue Plan: Humanities Grants for Libraries.
