UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA AT OMAHA

ROLE AND MISSION

The role and mission of the University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO) reflects a distinctively metropolitan emphasis. Accordingly, many of the academic majors, research activities, and public service programs are designed to respond to its urban/suburban environment. The University also has state-wide responsibility for providing programs and services in criminal justice, gerontology, public administration, urban studies, and social work. The Nebraska Business Development Center (NBDC) is a cooperative program of the U.S. Small Business Administration and the University of Nebraska at Omaha. NBDC administers its small business program at locations throughout Nebraska. UNO exists for the purpose of providing appropriate educational opportunities, discovering and disseminating knowledge through research and teaching, and offering public service to the citizens of the state, particularly the residents of the Omaha metropolitan area.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The University of Nebraska at Omaha is a comprehensive, public university located in the heart of Nebraska's largest city. It is the second-largest higher education campus in the state. UNO is part of the University of Nebraska system, which also includes the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, the University of Nebraska at Kearney and the University of Nebraska Medical Center.

The University of Nebraska at Omaha, with 487 full-time faculty members, offers certificates more than 120 baccalaureate degree programs and approximately 50 masters and doctoral degree programs. Undergraduate degree programs are offered in the colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education, Communication, Fine Arts & Media, Information Science and Technology, Public Affairs and Community Service, and Division of Continuing Studies. Programs and courses also are offered in the College of Human Resources and Family Sciences, the College of Engineering and Technology, the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources, and the College of Architecture, which are administered by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. The College of Public Affairs and Community Service is administered by the University of Nebraska at Omaha on both the Omaha and Lincoln campuses.

With a student body of 15,000 undergraduate and graduate students, the University focus on students is the top strategic goal. The UNO student population is a diverse mix of full and part-time students, and traditional and non-traditional age enrollees. Students come from all walks of life, from business professionals to international students. Such broad backgrounds and experiences enrich the classroom atmosphere. Ample opportunity is provided for specialized study in terms of interest, talent and ultimate vocational objective. The University works to ensure that its graduates be good citizens who earn a better living and live a richer, fuller life.

The University, in addition to offering courses for college credit, designs training courses for thousands of business and industrial employees; provides in-service training for elementary and secondary school teachers; conducts distance education classes for college credit and sponsors a wide variety of conferences, workshops, lectures, and fine art events to enrich the college credit offerings.

Opportunities for teaching and research abroad, coordinated by the Office of International Studies and Programs, exist through the University's network of sibling institutions in Afghanistan, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, China, Czech Republic, Finland, Germany, Greece, Guatemala, India, Japan, Latvia, Lithuania, Mexico, Moldova, Nicaragua, Norway, Philippines, Romania, Russia, Tajikistan, the Ukraine and other countries.

HISTORY

What is now the University of Nebraska at Omaha was founded in 1908 as the University of Omaha, a private non-sectarian college, with a campus at 24th and Pratt Streets in northeast Omaha. The first term of the co-educational college began in 1909, under the leadership of Dr. Daniel E. Jenkins, with twenty students.

The movement to make the University a municipal institution began in 1929, and in May, 1930 the citizens of Omaha voted to establish the Municipal University of Omaha. In the summer of 1930, the Omaha Board of Education selected the first University Board of Regents who was inducted into office on July 1, 1930. In January, 1931 the new Board of Regents took over the University of Omaha and its properties.

The expansion of the Municipal University of Omaha in the early 1930s led to a decision to move the campus to a 52-acre site southwest of Dodge and 60th Streets. In November 1936, the University secured a grant from the Works Progress Administration which, together with some accrued building funds, financed the construction of a Georgian-style building. This building, now called Arts and Sciences Hall, was finished in 1938 and served as the sole campus building until the 1950s.

In July 1968, the citizens of Omaha voted to transfer all University property to the University of Nebraska, and the former Municipal University of Omaha became the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

The University began rapid growth when it became a part of the University of Nebraska System. Enrollment was 8,730 in the fall of 1967 which was the last year as the Municipal University of Omaha. Three years later, enrollment was 13,185, a growth of 51 percent in the first three years as the University of Nebraska at Omaha. Student enrollment for the fall 2007 semester is 14,969.

The Dodge Street campus has expanded from its original 52 acres to the current 158.5 acres at two locations. On January 17, 1998 the Board of Regents approved a ground lease with Nebraska Housing I Limited Partnership (with Century Development as the general partner) to provide 576 beds of student housing at UNO. Six buildings and a club/office was completed for the fall 1999 semester and Scott Hall was completed for the fall 2000 semester which provided housing for an additional 164 students. Scott Village opened in fall 2003; total on-campus housing capacity is now 1,212 students. Groundbreaking for The Peter Kiewit Institute of Information Science, Technology and Engineering began on September 10, 1997 and was open for the fall 1999 semester. This 147,797 square foot facility is located on the former Aksarben property and is designed to meet present needs and has the flexibility to adapt easily to breaking technologies of tomorrow. The building houses UNO's College of Information Science and Technology and the Omaha-based programs of UNL's College of Engineering and Technology. The Dr. Guinter Kahn Library addition opened Fall 2006 and the construction/remodel building project to house the College of Public Affairs and Community Service is scheduled to open Fall 2008.

Through the support of the State of Nebraska, donors and the City of Omaha, UNO currently is enjoying unprecedented growth in building and housing improvements on campus and in adjacent neighborhoods. The acquisition of new land and facilities as well as construction projects will provide students with new and improved learning, campus recreation, and housing opportunities. Soon students will be within walking distance of new shopping, entertainment and restaurants.

Current projects:

- Sports Fields
- College of Public Affairs and Community Service
- Durham Math/Science Center
- Criss Library Renovation
- Student Center Dining Room
- Health, Physical Education & Recreation Facility
- New Student Housing & Parking

* The two different calculations of FTE are requested and used by various agencies including surveys. The first calculation pro-rates FTE based on the hours attempted by each student and the second calculation is used for licensing and peer comparisons where the FTE by SCH is unavailable. Student to faculty ratio based on FTE by Full-Time plus 1/3 Part-Time.

Note: Factors used for conversion of Part-Time Students for FTE by SCH

Undergraduate Students – Part-Time Hours divided by 12

Graduate Students - Part-Time Hours divided by 9

FTE by Full-Time Plus 1/3 Part-Time = Total Full-Time Students Plus 1/3 of Part-Time

Student to Faculty Ratio = Full-Time plus 1/3 Part-Time Students divided by Full-Time plus 1/3 Part-Time Faculty.

This ratio is reported annually to US News & World Report.

Note: In Fall 2003, the College of Continuing Studies became a division of Public Affairs & Community Services. In Fall 2005, the College of Fine Arts became the College of Communication, Fine Arts and Media. New communication majors were assigned to the College of Communication, Fine Arts and Media instead of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Table 46 . University Library
(General Information)

The University Library offers many services and contains materials and facilities for study and research. The collection includes nearly 700,000 books, more than 2,000,000 microforms, approximately 11,000 pieces of audiovisual material, and over 51,000 journal titles available either online or in print. As a government documents depository, the University Library collects many federal and Nebraska state publications. Nearly all of the Library's collection is on open shelves and is arranged according to the Library of Congress classification system. The holdings of the Library are available online through the Library Catalog. Numerous electronic databases are available for searching. Detailed information about resources and services is available at <http://library.unomaha.edu/>

Facilities Development Plan 2006-2015 Overview [excerpts]

As a metropolitan university of distinction, the University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO) is an invaluable higher education resource in the Omaha community and the State of Nebraska. Guided by its strategic goals of 1) focusing on students, 2) academic excellence and 3) community engagement, UNO is proud to be the institution of first choice for the majority of its ever increasing freshmen classes. The Ginter Kahn Addition to the Criss Library, the College of Public Affairs and Community Service (CPACS) Building project, and continued development of the Pacific and Center properties will offer exciting new growth opportunities to this dynamic institution.

Student housing, including the planned addition of 400 beds during the 2007/08 academic year, serves as a catalyst to develop a strong sense of community among students. Those residing on campus have increased utilization of existing facilities, a trend that will continue as residential housing is added incrementally. UNO is rapidly evolving into a 24-hour campus, serving both residential and commuter students with a variety of activities and amenities.

Celebrating its centennial in 2008, the university's physical environment has expanded and transformed into an aesthetically beautiful campus. A central pedestrian walkway unites the Dodge location's mix of traditional and contemporary academic buildings constructed of brick and limestone. These facilities are nestled into a thoughtful, inviting and sophisticated metropolitan landscape, creating a strong sense of place within the Omaha community.

The recent addition of the Center property bordering Papio Creak is a tremendous opportunity for UNO to expand campus services and enhance university outreach. Placing UNO on another major east/west Omaha circulator, this land offers great growth potential well into the future. As this property and the Pacific property develop, care should be taken to reinforce and complement the sense of place that exists at the Dodge location.

The private development of Aksarben Village between the Pacific and Center properties, will feature an eclectic mix of shops, offices and private housing units. This will help unite UNO's southern-most location, offering both those residing on, and commuting to, all three locations, increased access to entertainment, shopping and services.

Building on the high standards of previous campus plans, the university is well-positioned to continue its advance guided by this Facilities Development Plan
