Teaching and Technology Center, Kayser Hall 538

The Technology Center (TTC) is located in Kayser Hall room 538 and is staffed by instructional designers from the IS Academic Partnership for Instruction \(API\) team. The goal of API and the Teaching and Technology Center is to inspire, encourage, and support UNO faculty/staff who integrate technology into teaching to make learning more dynamic for students.

Vision

The Center is intended to provide UNO faculty and staff with a collaborative learning environment that serves as a catalyst for collegial exchange about the innovative uses of technology in education.

Instructional Design Services

The Center's resources are provided by Information Services and include consultants in course design, distance education, and advanced utilization of instructional technologies to meet learning outcomes. For more online instructional design resources go to <http://api.unomaha.edu>.
