Expansion of Kabul City Planned
U.S.S.R. PREPARES TO HELP BUILD PRE-FAB HOMES

KABUL, April 11—An agreement was signed in the presence of Khrushchev and the city's construction, and the republic of the homes. The agreement, signed by M. K. K. Rabin, the Prime Minister, and Mr. D., the representative of the U.S.S.R. Government, and Mr. H., the representative of the U.S.S.R. Government yesterday.

U.S. Steel Firms
Pursuing
Private Power
KENNEDY COMMANDS
PRICE INCREASE

WASHINGTON, April 11—President Kennedy yesterday expressed his support for the leading U.S. coal company, and the agreement between the world public opinion, and the United States, and the President of the United States, and the President of the United States.

He declared that the steel companies were pursuing private power, and the price increase would cause them to remain strong. The President continued to quote the section of our history, which we are confronted with, and the President of the United States.

He is likely to succeed in his fight for the United States, and the President of the United States.

The agreement between the world public opinion, and the United States, and the President of the United States, and the President of the United States.

JAMAICA GOES TO THE ELECTION

KINGSTON, April 11—(Report)—The elections in Jamaica's first general election since the island won independence, according to the West Indian Express, are scheduled for May 27. The elections are significant because they will determine the future of the Jamaican political system.

Mr. Osbourne, the former Prime Minister of Jamaica, who has been in power for almost a year, has announced that he will stand for re-election. He is the candidate of the Universal People's Party, which is seeking to maintain its majority in the House of Representatives.

The elections are expected to be particularly challenging for the JLP, which has been in power since 1962. The PNP, which has been in opposition since 1962, is expected to make a strong showing in the election.

ALGERIAN EXECUTIVE TAKES OVER INTERNAL ADMINISTRATION

ALGERS, Apr. 11, (Brussels)—The Algerian Provisional Government took over from the French authorities the internal administration of the country until the elections are celebrated.

Mr. A-M. Ben Bella, Minister of Defense, declared yesterday that the Algerian Army took over the internal administration of the country.

Mr. Bella said that the Army would maintain law and order and that it would be responsible for the internal administration of the country.

The elections are scheduled for May 11. The PNR, led by Mr. A-M. Ben Bella, is expected to win a majority in the elections.

The elections are expected to be particularly challenging for the French authorities, which have been in control of the country for almost 150 years.

The elections are expected to be particularly challenging for the French authorities, which have been in control of the country for almost 150 years.

The elections are expected to be particularly challenging for the French authorities, which have been in control of the country for almost 150 years.

The elections are expected to be particularly challenging for the French authorities, which have been in control of the country for almost 150 years.
Democracy In Pakistan, As Seen By Pakistanis

BY CHAUDHRY

He said, "tribute is evident in the world today." Mr. Jawaid, editor of the Pakistan Times, said, "tribute to the Pakistani High Commission in the Western World." Mr. Ahsan, editor of the Pakistan Times, said, "tribute is evident in the world today."

Another Pakistani student, Mr. Ubaid, Secretary of the Pakistan Times, said, "tribute to the Pakistani High Commission in the Western World." Mr. Aslam, editor of the Pakistan Times, said, "tribute is evident in the world today."

The meeting in conclusion passed on to the subject of tribute to the Pakistani High Commission in the Western World. Mr. Ahsan, editor of the Pakistan Times, said, "tribute is evident in the world today."

THE PRESS AND KABUL

THE PRESS AND KABUL

The Press

A. The press in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

B. The press in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

C. The press in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

D. The press in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

THE REVIEW

The Review

A. The review in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

B. The review in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

C. The review in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

D. The review in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

AFGHANISTAN

Afghanistan

A. Afghanistan is free, but it is subject to censorship.

B. Afghanistan is free, but it is subject to censorship.

C. Afghanistan is free, but it is subject to censorship.

D. Afghanistan is free, but it is subject to censorship.

KABUL TIMES

KABUL TIMES

A. Kabul Times is free, but it is subject to censorship.

B. Kabul Times is free, but it is subject to censorship.

C. Kabul Times is free, but it is subject to censorship.

D. Kabul Times is free, but it is subject to censorship.

THE SPOKESMAN

The Spokesman

A. The spokesman in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

B. The spokesman in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

C. The spokesman in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

D. The spokesman in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

THE VOICE

The Voice

A. The voice in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

B. The voice in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

C. The voice in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.

D. The voice in Kabul is free, but it is subject to censorship.
SOVIET CINEMA IS "CAPABLE OF MORE"

Film Producer Calls for Creative Work

KARLIS, April 12. (TASS)—A veteran Soviet film director has called for creative work that is "capable of more".

The director, who did not wish to be named, said that the Soviet film industry was "capable of more" than it had been in recent years.

He pointed out that the industry had produced many excellent films in the past, but that it had fallen behind in recent years.

The director said that the Soviet film industry needed to find new ways to keep up with the times.

He suggested that the industry should look to the West for inspiration.

The director noted that the West had produced many great films in recent years, and that the Soviet industry could learn from these.

He said that the industry should also be open to new ideas and new technologies.

He noted that the industry had been slow to adopt new technologies, and that this had hurt its ability to compete with other countries.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more willing to experiment and to try new things.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He urged the industry to be more open to new ideas and
to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.

He said that the industry should also be more willing to
take risks.

He noted that many of the greatest films in history
were made by directors who were willing to take risks.

He said that the industry should be more open to new
ideas and to be more innovative in its approach to filmmaking.