Strategic Planning Steering Committee
October 22, 2008
3:00-4:30 pm, EAB Chancellor's Conference Room

AGENDA

Topics for Discussion:

1. Welcome and Update

2. Centennial Kickoff Recap

- Events went well and most everything exceeded expectations
- Senator Chuck Hagel donation of archives has been very well received
- Buy the Big O event was a huge success with 50 volunteers and over 600 reference/prospect cards collected

3. Task Force Updates

- Strategic Planning Event
 - Draft agenda, website, and packet put together for Dr. Caret (forum speaker)
 - Make strategic effort to invite community members and add to our invitation list
- Neal and Bill Joint Task Force
 - Three action steps:
 - 1.) Define community engagement at next meeting
 - 2.) Separate Task Forces to examine community engagement readings, and then also to determine what information has been collected within various units on camps
 - 3.) Synthesis on Research of community engagement

4. Chancellor's Report

- Many people are excited about the fact that we will be discussing definition and metrics of community engagement at the Strategic Planning Forum
- New Student Advisory Committee (involved high school students also)
- We need to focus on getting more of UNO, community members, and peers from other institutions involved with our engagement efforts

5. Next Meeting is January 21st, 2009

Focus for 2008-2009:

Engagement – Central to Our City

- i. Inventory and document current UNO Community Engagement efforts
- ii. Revise Goal 3 in the Strategic Plan to reflect current and future activities
- iii. Host a Spring event that highlights the Community and Centennial theme
