PURPOSE OF THE SURVEY

The primary purpose of this survey is to meet the Carl D. Perkins Vocational Education Act mandate that the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) collect data on vocational education students and programs. In particular, the survey will provide information on student participation in specific programs in vocational education and measure changes in vocational program offerings and participation.

USES OF DATA

Data from this survey are used to describe the status of enrollment in occupationally specific programs. These data, used in conjunction with completions in occupationally specific programs, will also make it possible to compare the profile of those students who are enrolled in these programs to those who actually complete the programs. The resulting information is useful for manpower planning and program development.

COMPLIANCE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE OFFICE FOR CIVIL RIGHTS

The Office for Civil Rights (OCR) and the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES), with the approval of the Office of Management and Budget, cooperate in the collection of racial/ethnic information from all postsecondary institutions that offer occupationally specific programs at the subbaccalaureate level. Section 100.6(b) of the regulations implementing Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, set forth below, and similar provisions of the Title VI regulations of other Federal agencies, authorize collection of this information.

> 100.6(b) Compliance Reports – Each recipient shall keep records and submit to the responsible Department official or his designee timely, complete and accurate compliance reports at such times and in such form and containing such information as the responsible Department official or his designee may determine to be necessary to enable him to ascertain whether the recipient has complied or is complying with this part. For example, recipients should have available for the Department racial and ethnic data showing the extent to which members of minority groups are beneficiaries of and participants in federally-assisted programs. In the case of any program under which a primary recipient extends Federal financial assistance to any other recipient, such other recipient shall also submit such compliance reports to the primary recipient as may be necessary to enable the primary recipient to carry out its obligations under this part.

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 2.0 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to the U.S. Department of Education, Information Management and Compliance Division, Washington, DC 20202-4651, and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project 1850-0582, Washington, DC 20503.

PURPOSE OF THE SURVEY

The National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) collects enrollment data through this component of IPEDS each year in order to update several annual publications including its college enrollment projections, the Digest of Education Statistics, and the Condition of Education. IPEDS fall enrollment by age of student offers insight into the relationship between the changing demographics of college-going cohorts and enrollment in different types of postsecondary institutions. The residence data will enable States to analyze State level college attendance rates, student in-migration or out-migration, and the type of institutions that attract their citizens to other States. The survey is being conducted in compliance with the Center's mission "to collect and analyze and disseminate statistics and other data related to education in the United States" (20 U.S.C. 1221e–1, General Education Provisions Act, Sec. 406(b), as amended).

USES OF DATA

Fall enrollment traditionally is used to measure student access to postsecondary education and IPEDS will continue to provide this important statistical series. The Department also uses fall enrollment data in program planning and for setting funding allocation standards for legislatively controlled programs. Other Federal and State agencies use enrollment data in policymaking decisions, economic and financial planning, manpower forecasting, and policy formulation.

CERTIFICATION – I certify that the information given in this report is correct and true to the best of my knowledge and was prepared in accordance with accompanying instructions. Willfully false statements on this report are punishable by law, U.S. Code, Title 18, Section 1001.

COMPLIANCE REQUIREMENTS
FOR THE OFFICE FOR CIVIL RIGHTS

The Office for Civil Rights (OCR) and the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES), with the approval of the Office of Management and Budget, cooperate in the collection of racial/ethnic information from all postsecondary institutions for the Fall Enrollment survey. Section 100.6(b) of the regulations implementing Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, set forth below, and similar provisions of the Title VI regulations of other Federal agencies, authorize collection of this information.

100.6(b) Compliance Reports – Each recipient shall keep records and submit to the responsible Department official or his designee timely, complete and accurate compliance reports at such times and in such form and containing such information as the responsible Department official or his designee may determine to be necessary to enable him to ascertain whether the recipient has complied or is complying with this part. For example, recipients should have available for the Department racial and ethnic data showing the extent to which members of minority groups are beneficiaries of and participants in federally-assisted programs. In the case of any program under which a primary recipient extends Federal financial assistance to any other recipient, such other recipient shall also submit such compliance reports to the primary recipient as may be necessary to enable the primary recipient to carry out its obligations under this part.

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 5.0 hours per response but may range from 30 minutes to 10.0 hours depending on whether the information is readily accessible to machine readable files. The burden estimate includes the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to the U.S. Department of Education, Information Management and Compliance Division, Washington, DC 20202-4651, and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project 1850-0582, Washington, DC 20503. Please send completed survey forms to the address shown on the front page of this form.

The definitions and instructions for compiling IPEDS data have been designed to minimize comparability problems. However, postsecondary education institutions differ widely among themselves. As a result of these differences, comparisons of data provided by individual institutions may be misleading.
