We're excited you're considering the University of Nebraska Omaha! Here's what you need to know before we can welcome you to UNO as a transfer student.

Am I eligible to apply as a Transfer student? Transfer applicants are required to meet the following criteria:

- Completed transferable coursework from a regionally accredited collegiate institution following high school graduation.
- Have graduated from a regionally accredited high school or have completed the equivalent academic training (GED) (see GED section in the Core Course Requirement section).
- Meet the GPA requirement for the program in which you applied.
- Be in academic good standing at your previous institution(s).

UNO = Access
Undergraduates have access to instructors both in and out of class. The undergraduate faculty-to-student ratio is 18 to 1.
• Apply to UNO
• To complete an application, you will need to provide your mailing address, date of birth, and a valid email address.
• Provide your current legal name as it appears on your birth certificate, driver's license or social security card. In addition, providing your social security number on your application is recommended if you are applying for financial aid.

2. Pay the Application Fee

A $45 application fee is required for all new First-Year, Transfer, and Non-Degree/Visiting student applicants and must be paid when the application is submitted.

• The application fee is non-refundable and does not guarantee admission or enrollment in any specific classes. If you have previously enrolled as an undergraduate student on any University of Nebraska System campus, the application fee is not required.
• Pay online or by mail
• Undergraduate Application Fee waivers are available to applicants who meet specific conditions. For more information, please review our Application Fee Waiver Policy which is available on our Forms, Policies, and Conditions page under the policy section.

3. Submit Official Transcripts and Test Scores

• Request official high school transcript be sent to UNO. Visit your school's website for transcript request information or contact them directly. If you have a baccalaureate degree, your high school transcript may not be required. Contact UNO Undergraduate Admissions at unoadmissions@unomaha.edu.

• Request official ACT (school code: 2464) or SAT (school code: 6420) scores be sent to UNO if you have less than 24 credits or are applying to Engineering.

• Request official college transcripts from each institution at which you earned credit while in high school or prior to attending UNO. All post-secondary transcripts are required whether credit was earned or not. Failure to provide information regarding all post-secondary academic work attempted or completed will be considered fraudulent and may result in possible withdrawal of admission or dismissal from the University.

• NOTE: Hand-carried/student-submitted transcripts will not be accepted. They must be sent directly from each academic institution via their official transcript service to UNO Undergraduate Admissions.

• If your school uses an electronic transcript service, please send electronic transcripts to unoadmissions@unomaha.edu.

• Official transcripts may be mailed to the following address:
