Strategic Planning Steering Committee

February 28, 2007

Meeting Summary

- I. Welcome and update— Interim Chancellor John Christensen
 - Message for introduction at Friday's (March 2nd) Strategic Planning Forum
 - i. Our strategic plan is the right framework for our institution
 - ii. Our challenge is to continue to evolve our strategic plan — deepen and broaden what we do.
 - iii. Will touch on the governor's budget proposal
 - iv. Brief update on capital projects (housing, library, CPACS, etc.)

- II. Strategic Planning Forum
 - Good RSVP count

 - Adding Linda Mannering's UNO economic growth & development segment to the myMAPP presentation

 - Unit Strategic Planning

 - Environmental Issues & Strategies Activity—follow up to last year
 - i. We need facilitators! We may need to tap some of you at the last second. It will be mainly brainstorming strategies on the six issues.
 - ii. There will be a brief overview of last year, but just a few minutes, so that we can move forward.
 - iii. The idea of building on something from year to year shows that we don't have collective amnesia.
 - iv. There will be six homogeneous tables. What we might have available is the option of a second topic or, we could shorten it.
 - v. Do a second issue in the packet as a back-up.

 - Posters are ready. We have a variety from across the campus.

 - Student/Community Panel

 - Wrap-up
 - i. Summarize what came about from the day and talk about next steps
