The 2019 Black Votes Matter Face to Face with Black History Tour

For the record, the BVM 2018 Tour exceeded all expectations as to content, impact and outcome. For a complete review, there is a Comprehensive Analysis and Report on the 2018 Tour, available upon request through the BVM Office at 402-905-9305.

Planning and arrangements, for the 2019 Face to Face with Black History Tour, is in full throttle and in the final stages. The 2019 students have been identified and meetings with the nominating groups and parents have been completed. In 2018, we were able to take 40-OPS high school kids on the tour. In 2019, there will be 65 students and an additional 30 adults (2 full tour buses).

For review, the Tour attributes include:

- All expenses paid for the students
- Chaperones
- Back ground checks for all adults
- Full liability insurance
- Pre-Tour medical assessments
- Nurse on board
- Tour Handbook, which includes an agreed upon Code of Conduct
- Many amenities including T-shirts, personal bags and more

The 2019 Tour promises to be not only educational, inspirational and transformational, but per our vision to develop our future leaders, by providing a learning experience, respect for their history and a challenge for them to go out and make history. The Tour travels to: Memphis, Tennessee, Birmingham, Alabama, Selma, Alabama, Tuskegee, Alabama, Montgomery, Alabama and Atlanta, Georgia.

This years' tour features, as mentioned, two buses—the second bus will be populated by United Methodist students and adults—daily tour impact surveys and reflection journaling, enhanced tour alumni tracking and development, new collaborations with The West Point Society, as to leadership development and possible attendance to the prestigious West Point Military Academy, collaboration with Bellevue University for personal growth credit and educational modules.

There was a full length and short documentary made of the 2018 Tour, showings and lectures about the 2018 Tour are available by contacting the BVM office.
