Student Safety

All members of the UNO community are responsible for ensuring the safety and security of our students while treating them with honesty and respect. Our Division of Student Affairs works closely with campus and community partners to provide a number of resources to assist students and their families.

On-campus emergencies: call 402.554.2911 or 911

Immediate support or to speak with a confidential advisor: Call 402.554.2409

Title IX Training

Title IX Training is now available online. Learning about sexual misconduct and harassment will improve your role in understanding and preventing sexual violence. We'll explain where to go if you or a friend need to report an incident.

Help Myself

If you believe you have experienced discrimination, harassment, violence, or assault in any form, you have resources, reporting options, and the support of UNO.

Help A Friend

You don't have to do it alone. If you have a friend who is in need of help, UNO has many resources and services to support you and your friend.

How To Report

Not sure where to begin? You can start here and learn more about U-Tip, emergency contacts, community resources, and on-campus security.

Campus Resources

There are many areas on campus that have the resources to support your safety and security.
