Algerian Nationalists & Europeans Begin Talks

ALGIERS, June 2, (Reuters) — The O.A.S. has apparently halted its terrorist campaign—for the next few days.

The "truce" has been declared while preliminary talks are held between Europeans and OASists on the future of Europeans in Algeria. Europeans and OAS sources confirmed yesterday that meetings already taken place between representatives of M. Abder Rahman Fares, OAS minister for provisional executive, and Europeans.

Meeting were being held with the aim of an OAS provisional government in Tunisia, many of whose members are concerned over the unexpected large exodus of Europeans from Algeria.

One OAS member told the Guardian in the OAS delegation in Tunis that he had been in a meeting with the European Union of OASists and the OAS minister for provisional executive, and Europeans.

According to our sources, the OAS delegation in Tunis, which is expected to arrive today, is being welcomed by the local authorities.

Pakistan Asked to Give Up Design to Make Pakistan a Colony

KABUL, June 2.—A big jirga was recently held at Marrina in Warakzai in which a large number of representatives, leaders and scholars took part. After listening to the speeches of national leaders, the jirga unanimously passed a number of resolutions. One resolution said that the Government of Pakistan should recognize the rights of the people of Pakhtunistan at the earliest opportunity and give up its design of converting Pakhtunistan into a province of Pakistan. Another resolution said that all Pakhtun tribesmen should be released without any conditions whatsoever.

The propaganda of the Pakistan Government that the Warakzai region is unimportant for the central and provincial assemblies of Pakistan was ungrounded, and third resolution said that the Warakzai region is an integral part of Pakhtunistan and has no connection with Pakistan Law and Administration. The Warakzai region is an anti-anti-Pakistan and anti-Pakhtunistan movement against the people of Pakhtun.

Some Hints On Growing Dahlias

Dahlias are grown from September to December. They are grown in sand, and care is required to prevent them from swamping. The petals are cut when the flower is one to two inches in size. They are cut daily and later treated with a spray of water. The wire is taken off the wire and the flower sprouts. The petals are then dried and the Spray of water is applied daily.

Dangers Of Oral Contraceptives

The use of oral contraceptives during the menstrual period has been advocated by medical authorities as a safe and effective method of birth control. However, recent studies have shown that the use of these contraceptives may be associated with an increased risk of certain serious health problems, including blood clots and stroke in women over the age of 35. It is important for women who are considering using oral contraceptives to weigh the potential risks and benefits carefully before making a decision.

SIGNIFICANCE OF RECENT RIOTS IN PESHAWAR

The recent riots in Peshawar, Central Darra, Pakistan, have created a significant international concern. The riots, which began in November 2011, have resulted in the death of at least 40 people and have caused widespread damage to property.

In order to prevent the spread of these violent incidents, the authorities have taken steps to ensure the safety of the local population and to prevent further unrest. The government has deployed troops to the affected areas and has also imposed a curfew in some districts.

The authorities have also emphasized the importance of peaceful resolution of disputes and the need for dialogue between different groups. They have urged all parties to work towards a peaceful and harmonious society.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

CEREMONIES

The Independence Day celebration was held at the Afghan Embassy in London, where the Afghan community gathered to mark the 20th anniversary of the country's independence. The event included a flag raising ceremony and speeches from guest speakers who spoke about the importance of peace and stability in Afghanistan.

The celebration was attended by members of the Afghan community as well as representatives of other countries who are involved in the Afghan peace process. It was also attended by members of the Afghan government and officials from the UK government.

The event was held in the spirit of unity and cooperation, and it was emphasized that the Afghan people must work together to achieve a brighter future for their country.
