6-23-1962

Kabul Times (June 23, 1962, vol. 1, no. 91)

Bakhtar News Agency

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes

Part of the International and Area Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes/95
WILL S. AFRICAN FEDERATION BE SAVED OR ABANDONED?

By A. K. RUMBOB

This will be mere speculation unless the African Union, the Southern States, and the British themselves are determined to give this the serious attention it deserves. The African Union, if it is to be saved, must have a clear policy, and it is not likely that such a policy will be reached until there is a new government in Africa's territories, at least for the time being. In the meantime, it is urgent that there should be a clear policy on the part of the British authorities, if the African Union is to be saved.

Recent Advances In The Scientific Education Of Afghan Youth

A Department of Meteorology, which is an important one, has been established at the University of Kabul. The department is located in the same building as the Faculty of Science, which is also important.

The Afghan government has also established a new division for the education of Afghan youth. This division will be headed by a professor of physics from the University of Kabul.

The division will focus on the development of science in Afghanistan. It will work closely with the University of Kabul and other educational institutions to provide a high level of education to Afghan youth.
Adoula’s Offer To Tshombe’s Party

LEOPOLDVILLE, June 19—Civilian Prime Minister Adoula, the day after to include members of Mr. Mobutu’s Premier’s Party in his Government.

Mr. Tshombe and Mr. Adoula are at present in the capital of the province of Kasaï, which was taken from the Katangan armies two years ago.

A letter from Mr. Adoula, read to the Katangan press yesterday, was the first indication that he would like Mr. Tshombe to take part in a reconstituted Government.

He added that only a Government of the National Union would be able to secure the unity and independence of Congo.

The Senate recently decided that the Government should respect the line of the Senate and that a Government of the National Union would be able to secure the unity and independence of Congo, and this is the first indication that he would like Mr. Tshombe to take part in a reconstituted Government.

The Senate recently decided that the Government should respect the line of the Senate and that a Government of the National Union would be able to secure the unity and independence of Congo, and this is the first indication that he would like Mr. Tshombe to take part in a reconstituted Government.

The Senate recently decided that the Government should respect the line of the Senate and that a Government of the National Union would be able to secure the unity and independence of Congo, and this is the first indication that he would like Mr. Tshombe to take part in a reconstituted Government.

Afro-Asian Draft Resolution On Ruanda-Urundi

NEW YORK, June 23—Ruanda-Urundi was taken into close review today at the United Nations, where the Special Committee on the Ruanda-Urundi Problem yesterday passed a resolution calling for the establishment of a United Nations Council on the Ruanda-Urundi Problem.

The Committee is attempting to achieve a peaceful solution to the Ruanda-Urundi problem, which has been the subject of many international discussions.

The Committee is attempting to achieve a peaceful solution to the Ruanda-Urundi problem, which has been the subject of many international discussions.

The Committee is attempting to achieve a peaceful solution to the Ruanda-Urundi problem, which has been the subject of many international discussions.

The Committee is attempting to achieve a peaceful solution to the Ruanda-Urundi problem, which has been the subject of many international discussions.

Pakistan Building Damaged

KABUL, June 23—A group of soldiers under the command of a Pakistani General in charge of the capital, Mr. Zahir Shah, attacked a building in the city.

The building, located in the center of the city, was attacked by a group of Pakistani soldiers under the command of Mr. Zahir Shah.

The building, located in the center of the city, was attacked by a group of Pakistani soldiers under the command of Mr. Zahir Shah.

The building, located in the center of the city, was attacked by a group of Pakistani soldiers under the command of Mr. Zahir Shah.

The building, located in the center of the city, was attacked by a group of Pakistani soldiers under the command of Mr. Zahir Shah.

Another Decline On Wall Street

NEW YORK, June 23—(Bloomberg)—The New York Stock Exchange today experienced a decline in the value of stocks, particularly in the industrial and transportation sectors.

The decline was caused by a drop in demand for stocks, particularly in the industrial and transportation sectors.

The decline was caused by a drop in demand for stocks, particularly in the industrial and transportation sectors.

The decline was caused by a drop in demand for stocks, particularly in the industrial and transportation sectors.

The decline was caused by a drop in demand for stocks, particularly in the industrial and transportation sectors.

Kabul Sports Round-Up

The following are the results of sports events reported in Kabul on Thursday, the 23rd of June:

Another Decline On Wall Street

NEW YORK, June 23—(Bloomberg)—The New York Stock Exchange today experienced a decline in the value of stocks, particularly in the industrial and transportation sectors.

The decline was caused by a drop in demand for stocks, particularly in the industrial and transportation sectors.

The decline was caused by a drop in demand for stocks, particularly in the industrial and transportation sectors.

The decline was caused by a drop in demand for stocks, particularly in the industrial and transportation sectors.

The decline was caused by a drop in demand for stocks, particularly in the industrial and transportation sectors.

Kabul

June 23—Mr. Adoula, Premier of the Democratic Republic of Congo, was the guest of honor at a dinner given in his honor by the American Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Adoula is on his way back to Kinshasa after a visit to Europe.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.

Kabul

June 23—Mr. Adoula, Premier of the Democratic Republic of Congo, was the guest of honor at a dinner given in his honor by the American Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Adoula is on his way back to Kinshasa after a visit to Europe.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.

Kabul

June 23—Mr. Adoula, Premier of the Democratic Republic of Congo, was the guest of honor at a dinner given in his honor by the American Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Adoula is on his way back to Kinshasa after a visit to Europe.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.

The dinner was attended by many visitors from the United States and other countries who were in Kabul.