U.S. Marines Sustain Heavy Casualties In Hand To Hand Fight With Viet Cong

Britain Will Send No Troops To Viet Cong, Wilson Says

BHI, South Vietnam, May 4 (AP).-U.S. Marine fire consumed two Viet Cong helicopters and a truck on a hillside here today in an action that many sources here described as the heaviest single hand-to-hand combat in the war so far, caused heavy débris, although overall American losses were not high. The battle erupted when two American P-38 fighters, on a combat sweep over the hills north of Hoi An, came under fire from North Vietnamese gunners. The Marines described the sweep as an assault on the Viet Cong. The Vietnamese forces hit the American position at about 1600 hours and continued to attack for an hour, the Marines said. The U.S. Marines said that they did not lose any planes or pilots but that the Viet Cong suffered considerable casualties.

The battle ended when two American P-38 bombers, on a mission over the hills, saw the smoke from the fighting and came down to check the situation. The U.S. Marines said that the Viet Cong suffered no losses in the battle.

Sukarno, Suharto Disagree On Role of Congress Scheduled To Meet Next Thursday

JAKARTA, May 3 (AP) — President Sukarno and Prime Minister Suharto, who are both now major power plays this week to minimize the impact of the upcoming legislative conference, have been blocked by military strongmen from a scheduled meeting Thursday.

For a major power play this week to minimize the impact of the upcoming legislative conference, the military strongmen have been blocked by Sukarno and Suharto, who are both now major power players. The two leaders are expected to meet next week to discuss ways to strengthen their alliance and to address the crisis centers in the government.

For Suharto, the meeting next week with Sukarno is a key opportunity to demonstrate his ability to lead the country out of the current political and economic crisis. The meeting is also expected to focus on issues such as the economy, foreign policy, and the handling of the crisis in the East Timor region.

For Sukarno, the meeting next week with Suharto is an opportunity to reaffirm his leadership and to ensure that the government remains stable. The meeting is expected to address issues such as the economy, foreign policy, and the handling of the crisis in the East Timor region.

For both leaders, the meeting next week is essential to maintaining their positions of power and to ensuring the stability of the government. The meeting will likely be held in a closed environment, with only a few senior officials present.

Afghan Independence Day

Today marks the 60th anniversary of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan.

In 1978, the Afghan people, led by a group of brave revolutionaries, overthrew the残酷的and oppressive rule of the pro-American monarchy and established a new government. This was the first time in modern history that the Afghan people had the power to determine their own destiny.

Since then, Afghanistan has faced many challenges, including war, famine, and political instability. However, the Afghan people have never given up hope and have continued to work towards a better future for their country.

In recent years, the government of Afghanistan has made great strides in improving education, healthcare, and economic development. The country is also working to expand its role on the world stage, and is playing an increasingly important role in regional and international affairs.

The Afghan people are proud of their rich cultural and historical traditions, and are determined to build a bright future for their children and grandchildren.

Today, we commemorate the 60th anniversary of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan, and we offer our congratulations to the Afghan people on this important milestone.
