Pazihawk's Speech

There will be no ceasefire for it is not only the immediate need but also the ultimate need for war and peace. The United States of America has asked President Eisenhower, and he wants to see peace. The United States of America wants to see peace and agreement. The United States of America wants to see peace and
agreement.

Mr. Pazihawk said: "We will not accept any changes in the present situation where the United States of America has asked for peace and agreement. The United States of America wants to see peace and
agreement.

BASIC DEMOCRACY OR AUTOCRACY?

That word means can it be called a representative body?

Democracy is growing in both wings of Pakistan. The people of Pakistan have not surrendered their rights to the rule of such developments in Pakistan.

The Constitution aims at providing the people of Pakistan with the rule of law and the rule of the people themselves. The people of Pakistan know that the Constitution is a charter of their rights and they will continue to work for its fulfillment.

KHEDDA'S APPEAL

be strengthened by the Afghan Islamic Liberation Army (AILA), according to the Afghan National Army.

The bodies of soldiers and of their unit leaders will be entered in the Afghan National Army, according to the Constitutional Government.

"On gaining our independence, we shall continue to demonstrate our respect for the Afghan (Islamic) Agreements and our ability to build and protect our country," said Ben Khedda.

"We are certain that in the strictest order and discipline, the Afghan National Army will be able to assist the Constitutional Government in all matters, whether it be in terms of policy or national defense."

He called on all Afghans to support the National Liberation Front under the leadership of the Afghan Constitutional Government. He also called on all Afghans to support the Afghan government in all matters, whether it be in terms of policy or national defense.

He ended his broadcast by saying: "Long live the unity of the Afghan people! Long live the Afghan Democratic and Social Republican lives in our independence. Let us fight against the people's struggle and of their martyrs with all our strength."
