Adenauer Visits Paris Today

PARIS, July 2, (Reuters) - Dr. Konrad Adenauer, Chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany, arrived here by air for a three day visit to France.

Dr. Adenauer will hold talks with President de Gaulle and Prime Minister Pierre Mendès France on questions of mutual interest.

The meeting of the two statesmen has been arranged to mark the 25th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between the two countries.

The news of the visit was received here with widespread interest and enthusiasm.

Dr. Adenauer's talks with the French statesman are expected to create a powerful impetus for the further development of Franco-German relations.

The Chancellor's visit is also expected to strengthen the ties between West Germany and other European countries.

The French Government is especially keen on the establishment of a closer economic and political cooperation between West Germany and the other members of the European Economic Community.

Emergencysesssions of the French Parliament will be held during Dr. Adenauer's visit.

Adenauer's talks with de Gaulle and Mendès France will be covered by all the French and German press.

Withdrawal Of U.S. Marines from South Vietnam

Washington, July 5, (despatch) - President Kennedy has authorized the withdrawal of 1,500 of the American forces in Vietnam to begin in 30 days, and the U.S. official to report the date.

The following letter was released by the U.S. Embassy in Saigon:

"The President has decided that the withdrawal of U.S. forces from South Vietnam will begin in 30 days. The date of the beginning of the withdrawal will be announced by the U.S. Embassy in Saigon."
Free Algeria

The Algerian crisis on Monday advanced to the point of virtually total political impasse, as the French Government rejected an independent, self-determined Algeria and the Algerian leaders declared that they would not accept any political solution that did not include full independence. The crisis escalated as the two sides continued to pursue their respective objectives without any indication of willingness to compromise.

The United Nations and the Birth of New Nations

The following are the highlights of the United Nations debate on the question of self-determination and the birth of new nations.

The Decade of Asia

In this connection I wish to renew the appeal to the United Nations to take the lead in the development of the natural resources of Asia, particularly the region of the future United Nations. The United Nations should not only recognize the right of the people of Asia to choose their own form of government, but also to control their own destiny.

The United Nations and the birth of new nations

The United Nations, which was born in 1945, is now discharging its major responsibilities. The United Nations is working to promote world peace and cooperation among nations.
