President Kennedy on Wednesday called for a "Declaration of Independence" to maintain the highest possible level of world cooperation. A United Nations, the President noted, is not powerful enough to prevent a world of conflict and a world of peace, a world of war, and a world of understanding and faith. The world is "in a state of emergency," he said, and "it will be the task of the United Nations to take the lead in the human race." The UN Charter must be

At a Glance

Radio Kabul on Wednesday morning broadcast a statement from the President of the United States, Mr. Kennedy. Mr. Kennedy’s statement was that a Declaration of Independence should be made by all nations of the world. The President said that the United Nations should be used to achieve this end. Mr. Kennedy also said that the United Nations should be used to achieve peace, to maintain order, and to promote prosperity.

In Africa

The Ministry of Health in South Africa has ordered the National Union of South Africa to take measures to send all patients to the nearest hospital. The Ministry of Health stated that the United Nations should be used to achieve this end. The Ministry also stated that the United Nations should be used to achieve peace, to maintain order, and to promote prosperity.
