UNO / General Education / Approved Courses / Humanities & Fine Arts

The Humanities & Fine Arts courses seek to help students understand, analyze, and explore the human condition. Studying Humanities & Fine Arts contributes to personal growth and well-being, as well as to living in, and contributing to various communities.

To fulfill their distribution requirements, students must complete nine credit hours of coursework representing at least two disciplines in this category. In addition, students must complete nine credit hours of coursework in Social Sciences, and seven credit hours in Natural & Physical Sciences towards their distribution requirements. Distribution requirements comprise 25 hours of the general education curriculum.

Students Learning Outcomes

Successful students shall be able to do the following:

- demonstrate an understanding of the theories, methods, and concepts used to comprehend and respond to the human condition;
- recognize, articulate, and explore how various humanists/artists have responded to the human condition;
- comprehend and evaluate how humanistic/artistic expression contributes to individual and/or socio-cultural understanding, growth, and well-being; and
- use relevant critical, analytic, creative, speculative and/or reflective methods.

Please see the table below for a list of Humanities & Fine Arts courses that have been approved for inclusion in the general education curriculum.
