Atomic Arms Race Danger Of Accidental War THAN CALLS FOR HALT TO NUCLEAR TESTS

WARSAW, Sept. 1. (Reuters)—U Thant, the acting Secretary-General, said yesterday the atomic arms race posed an "ever present" danger of accidental war and criticized the "hair splitting" that prevented agreement on a halt to nuclear testing.

"We must expend all our energies to put an end to these tests," he said in an address at the University of Warsaw.

FOREIGN MINISTER IN TEHERAN

KABUL, Sept. 1.—Sardar Mohammed Naim, Minister of Foreign Affairs, arrived in Teheran on his first visit to the iranian capital in London next month, although no final date has been set.

He was welcomed by Premier Tash-Rid, who extended to him a tourist visa for the city.

Sources close to the President said, however, that Ghana would definitely participate in the conference.

The name of the leader of the delegation in the absence of the President was expected to be announced in a day or two.

Nkrumah May Not Attend London Premiers' Talks

ACCRA, Sept. 1. (Reuters)—President Nkrumah is unlikely to attend the Commonwealth Prime Ministers' conference in London next month, although no final decision has been made.

Sources close to the President said he would not participate in the conference.

He and Mr. Tawia Adamawa, the Information Minister, and Mr. H. H. Hogue-Crabbe, Executive Secretary of the Council of African Ministers, were detained on Monday in Antigua for the purpose of the conference.

He said he had agreed to attend the conference in Antigua, but had been given no assurance that he would be given a visa for the conference.

He also said he had agreed to attend the conference in Antigua, but had been given no assurance that he would be given a visa for the conference.

The President is said to feel that he is in charge of the situation and that there has been no serious doubt about his right to the coalition of the army and police force.

RECEPTION TO SOVIET LEADERS

KARAB, September 1, 1962

KARAB—A dinner was given in honor of Dr. Ladislaw Kukula, President of Poland, and Madame Kukula, by the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

The dinner was given in the presidential palace in Kinshasa.

At the end of the dinner Kukula presented a gift to President Mobutu.

At some point during the evening Kukula said that the visit had been a great honor for him.

Another guest at the dinner was Dr. Albert Schweitzer, who is a Swiss medical doctor and writer.

Schweitzer is known for his work in Africa and his contributions to medicine.

At one point during the evening Schweitzer said that he was impressed by the hospitality of the people of Congo.

KUKULA: "It has been a pleasure to meet you all tonight," Schweitzer said.

MADEMOISELLE: "May I have the pleasure of speaking to you all?"

KUKULA: "Of course, Mademoiselle," Schweitzer replied.

MADEMOISELLE: "I would like to thank you for your hospitality tonight.

Schweitzer, who is known for his work in medicine, has been a frequent guest at dinners and receptions.

At one point during the evening Schweitzer said that he was proud to be a doctor.

SCHWEITZER: "I am proud to be a doctor," Schweitzer said.

MADEMOISELLE: "It is a pleasure to have you here tonight."
