Popul's Call For Private Help
At National Jumboree

KARUN, Oct. 26—The fourth National Jumboree of the Sarandy Mountains, an annual event held in the Sarandy Mountains of Badakhshan, Afghanistan, was attended by Mr. Khrushchev, the President of the Soviet Union. The Jumboree is a unique event where thousands of young people from different parts of the country gather to participate in various activities like games, sports, and cultural events.

The event was organized by the Sarandy Mountains Administrative Committee, which handles the affairs of the Sarandy Mountains area. Mr. Khrushchev visited the event with a group of young people who were actively participating in the activities.

He expressed his satisfaction with the progress made by the Sarandy Mountains Administrative Committee and praised the efforts of the young people for their hard work and dedication.

Bunche To Investigate Political And Military Situation In Congo

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP) — Dr. Ralph Bunche, United Nations mediator to the Congo, left by air yesterday to investigate the political and military situation in the Congo on behalf of U.S. President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Chiefs of Staff in the Department of State were quoted as saying the visit of the black American sociologist was made possible because of the cooperation of the government of the United States with the government of the United Nations. Dr. Bunche will be accompanied by a special mission of the United Nations, headed by General Sir Frederick Lugard, the United Kingdom's representative to the Congo.

Dr. Bunche, who was appointed by the United Nations as Special Representative of the Secretary-General for the Congo, left New York after a meeting with Secretary-General Trygve Lie. Dr. Bunche arrived in New York from London, where he had been engaged in negotiations with Lugard.

The plan is for Dr. Bunche to travel to Belgrade, Yugoslavia, to confer with the United Nations Special Committee on the Congo, and then to proceed to the Congo, where he will confer with the leaders of the Katanga province, who are led by General Mobutu Sese Seko, and with the government of the United Nations.
