ALGERIA: DAY TOMORROW
People Look To Future
With Confidence
ALGIERS, Oct. 31, (Tass) — Tomorrow Algeria will celebrate the Day of their struggle for independence. A festive spirit is already in evidence in the streets and squares of the city.

On the occasion of national flags fly over flat roofs and balconies of the buildings and on the radio and television, recalling the struggle of the African people for independence, which is already enshrined in the constitution of the new state. The Algerian government is taking every possible measure to ensure that the celebrations take place without any disturbance.

Traces of War
An independent republic rose up on the ruins of the colony. But the memories of those days are still seen, everywhere in the capital. All windows and doors are decorated with flowers, flags and signs of national pride.
Nature, the symbol of justice and peace, remains the dominant theme of the celebrations.

Chinese Representation
In U.N. Paskhov Explains Afghanistan's Views On The Issue
NEW YORK, Oct. 31—Speaking in the U.N. General Assembly recently on the issue of Chinese representation at the U.N., Comrade Paskhov, the Afghan delegate, said that "we regret very much that once again the Assembly is confronted with the crucial question of the legal rights of the Chinese People's Republic in the United Nations, an issue which has been so controversial for so long.

We have been told that China is a neighbouring country, that the People's Republic of China is part of the United Nations, that the Chinese side has been patient and long suffering and that we have ventured to ask permission to speak, in this Assembly, that we do not wish to see this issue clouded in any way by irrelevant considerations. There is one consideration before the Assembly at the present time; in our opinion, it is the right of the representative of a Member State Mr. Paskhov said: "Our support for the seating of the People's Republic of China in the United Nations is based on the fact that we have recognized the People's Republic of China, for our position itself has evolved from our

UNIVERSITY OF KABUL, Oct. 31.—Professor Mr. Paskhov said: "In the interests of peace in Asia, the part of the world to which we belong, the issue of the Chinese representation in the United Nations is of vital importance.

No New Member
"As I have repeatedly said, I am not discussing the admission of a new member to the United Nations, we rather faced with the question of the credentials of a Member State. The nature of the question cannot be changed even though it has wide political implications, and we are convinced that the answer to this question is in the interests of peace in Asia, in the interests of the people of the United Nations.

SINO-INDIAN
BORDER ISSUE
U.S.S.R. Calls For Negotiations
NEW YORK, Oct. 31, (Reuter) — The Soviet Government has been trying to make another move to resolve the Sino-Indian border dispute—after another move towards diplomatic relations in the United Nations.

Speaking after the USSR proposed the Chinese admission had been defeated by 56 votes to 43, Mr. V. Chernenko, the U.S.S.R. delegate, told the General Assembly that the U.S.S.R. believed the border dispute should be settled by peaceful means, through negotiations.

The Soviet Union believed that the report on the border events was not connected with events in China and India's national interests.
