UK'S Decision To Resume Disarm Tests Defended

The Prime Minister, Mr. Macmillan, rejected the charges of a dangerous policy and said that British government was determined to go ahead with testing. The Opposition, led by Mr. John Smith, staged a walk-out as the Government denied any responsibility for the international controversy which was being caused by the decision. The walk-out, unprecedented in the history of Parliament, was described by Mr. Smith as an indication of the nature of the debate and the seriousness of the situation which was developing.

LONDON, Nov. 14. (AP)—The Prime Minister, Mr. Macmillan, said today that the British Government had decided to resume testing nuclear weapons at Christmas. This was the conclusion of a long discussion in the Cabinet which was held yesterday. It was decided to go ahead with the tests because the Prime Minister believed that the country was faced with a serious threat from the nuclear weapons of other countries. The Government had made a careful study of the situation and concluded that the tests were necessary for the nation's security. The Prime Minister said that the tests would be resumed on Christmas Day. The Prime Minister stated that the tests were essential for the nation's security. The tests would be resumed on Christmas Day. The Prime Minister stated that the tests were essential for the nation's security.

THAILAND

The King of Thailand has agreed to a British request for a military visit to the country. The King has said that he will visit the country in the spring. The visit is expected to be a friendly one and will be an opportunity for the two countries to strengthen their ties. The visit will be a welcome opportunity for the King to meet with the British Ambassador and other officials. The visit will also provide an opportunity for the two countries to discuss a range of issues, including trade, tourism, and security.

KABUL GOLF

The Ladies and Junior Handicap Championship was held in Kabul. The event was a great success and attracted a large number of participants. The competition was held on the Kabul Golf Club, which is one of the most prestigious clubs in the country. The event was well-organized and the organization of the event was praised by all who attended.

NEW YORK

The United States and the Soviet Union have both agreed to continue their disarmament negotiations, the U.S. Department of State said today. The agreement was reached after a series of meetings between the two countries. The negotiations are expected to continue for several more months. The United States is expected to present a new set of proposals to the Soviet Union, and the Soviet Union is expected to respond with its own proposals. The negotiations are expected to be difficult, but both countries have indicated a willingness to work towards a peaceful settlement.

USSR And USA To Resume Disarm Talks On November 26

NEW YORK, Nov. 15—The U.S. and the Soviet Union have agreed to resume their disarmament negotiations on November 26. The negotiations were originally scheduled to begin on November 1, but were postponed due to the Cuban crisis. The United States and the Soviet Union have agreed to continue their negotiations to reduce nuclear weapons. The negotiations will be held in Geneva and will be attended by representatives of both countries. The negotiations are expected to continue for several more months. The United States is expected to present a new set of proposals to the Soviet Union, and the Soviet Union is expected to respond with its own proposals. The negotiations are expected to be difficult, but both countries have indicated a willingness to work towards a peaceful settlement.

Pakistani Day U.N. COMMITTEE DEBATE ON S.W. AFRICA ISSUE

Speakers Condemn Apartheid

The U.N. General Assembly's Special Committee on South West Africa has condemned South African apartheid in a vote today. The committee voted 97-27 to condemn South African apartheid. The vote was supported by African nations and other nations that believe in human rights, and opposed by South Africa and its allies. The committee's report noted that apartheid is a violation of the right to self-determination and that the South African government has not made any progress towards ending apartheid.

TRADING WITH EAST EUROPE

Six Fall To Agree On Joint Policy

The six Eastern European countries have agreed to a joint policy on trade with Western Europe. The policy will be aimed at reducing the trade deficit with Western Europe. The policy will also aim to diversify the trade of the Eastern European countries. The countries have agreed to a joint approach to trade with the West, and to work together to increase exports to Western European countries. The policy will be implemented in the near future.

RELIGIONS IN CONTROL OF NORTHERN YEMEN

Christian Church's Rule In Yaman

In a conference in Sana'a, the capital of Yemen, the President of the Republic of Yemen, Mr. Abdul Rahman, said that the Christian Church would continue to control the northern part of Yemen. The President said that the Church had been in control of the northern part for a long time and that the Church's influence and power would continue to grow. The President also said that the Church would continue to play a role in the political and social life of the northern part.

HEAVY SNOW IN CHAKAR

FAERZAD, Nov. 15—Heavy snow fell in the Faerzad region today. The snow fell for several consecutive hours, and the region was covered in a thick layer of snow. The snowfall caused some inconvenience, but there were no reports of any damage or injuries. The region is known for its severe winter weather, and the snowfall is expected to continue for several more days. The region is a popular tourist destination, and the snowfall is expected to attract many visitors.
WILL U.N. TAME THE SHREW IN KATANGA?

BY OBSERVER

In recent months, the tragic story of the struggle of the Congolese people against the foreign invaders and the puppet government of Upper Katanga is well known to the world. The people of Upper Katanga continue to fight bravely against the invaders, who are supported by the puppet government of Upper Katanga. Despite the efforts of the United Nations, the situation in Upper Katanga remains critical. The people of Upper Katanga deserve the support of the international community.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CRISIS IN FRANCE

The present political atmosphere in France is characterized by a constitutional crisis. The conflict between the President de Gaulle and his political opponents has escalated, leading to a crisis in the political system. The current situation has been exacerbated by the President's decision to dissolve the National Assembly and call for new elections. This move has been met with widespread opposition, and the crisis continues to unfold.

CONSTITUTIONAL CRISIS IN FRANCE

This constitutional crisis has been exacerbated by the President's decision to dissolve the National Assembly and call for new elections. This move has been met with widespread opposition, and the crisis continues to unfold. The future of the French Republic hangs in the balance as the country contemplates its next steps.

Universe of Archaeological Researches in Afghanistan

Afghanistan, because of its geographical position, was always a strategic center. The country is rich in archaeological remains, which provide valuable insights into the cultural and historical development of the region. The country has a long history, with evidence of human settlement dating back thousands of years. The archaeological sites in Afghanistan offer a unique opportunity to study the past and gain a deeper understanding of the region's cultural heritage.

Universal Value of Archaeological Researches In Afghanistan

Archaeological researches in Afghanistan have played a crucial role in understanding the country's rich history. The country has a long and varied history, with evidence of human settlement dating back thousands of years. The archaeological sites in Afghanistan offer a unique opportunity to study the past and gain a deeper understanding of the region's cultural heritage. The country has a long and varied history, with evidence of human settlement dating back thousands of years. The archaeological sites in Afghanistan offer a unique opportunity to study the past and gain a deeper understanding of the region's cultural heritage.

CONSTITUTIONAL CRISIS IN FRANCE

The current constitutional crisis in France is characterized by a constitutional crisis. The conflict between the President de Gaulle and his political opponents has escalated, leading to a crisis in the political system. The current situation has been exacerbated by the President's decision to dissolve the National Assembly and call for new elections. This move has been met with widespread opposition, and the crisis continues to unfold.

Universe of Archaeological Researches In Afghanistan

Archaeological researches in Afghanistan have played a crucial role in understanding the country's rich history. The country has a long and varied history, with evidence of human settlement dating back thousands of years. The archaeological sites in Afghanistan offer a unique opportunity to study the past and gain a deeper understanding of the region's cultural heritage. The country has a long and varied history, with evidence of human settlement dating back thousands of years. The archaeological sites in Afghanistan offer a unique opportunity to study the past and gain a deeper understanding of the region's cultural heritage.
Cuban Crisis Moves Into Dangerous Period
CASTRO'S THREAT TO FIRE AT U.S. RECONNAISSANCE PLANES

In a White House conference with the Executive Committee of the Cuban President Fidel Castro, the President of the United States, Richard Nixon, insisted that on October 26 the United States would not stop planes which Castro threatened to fire upon. The White House statement implied that the United States would respond by firing upon Cuba. The President's stand was accepted by the President of the United States. The President said that on October 27 the United States would not stop planes which Cuba threatened to fire upon. The White House statement implied that the United States would respond by firing upon Cuba. The President's stand was accepted by the President of the United States.

West MAY Boycott World Trade
TALKS IF HELD NEXT YEAR

New York, Nov. 15. (U.S.)—The White House announced today that it would boycott world trade conferences if the U.S. talks were not held next year. The President said that the United States would boycott world trade conferences if the U.S. talks were not held next year. The President said that the United States would boycott world trade conferences if the U.S. talks were not held next year. The President said that the United States would boycott world trade conferences if the U.S. talks were not held next year.

AFGHAN M.P.'S VISIT HOSPITALS

Moscov, Nov. 15.—The Afghan Parliament visited the hospitals in Moscow and St. Petersburg yesterday to discuss the problems of the Afghan health system. The Afghan Parliament visited the hospitals in Moscow and St. Petersburg yesterday to discuss the problems of the Afghan health system. The Afghan Parliament visited the hospitals in Moscow and St. Petersburg yesterday to discuss the problems of the Afghan health system. The Afghan Parliament visited the hospitals in Moscow and St. Petersburg yesterday to discuss the problems of the Afghan health system.

Indian Seeks U.S. Transport Planes

Washington, Nov. 15. (AP)—An Indian official said today that the Indian delegation to the United States was considering the purchase of U.S. transport planes. The Indian delegation to the United States was considering the purchase of U.S. transport planes. The Indian delegation to the United States was considering the purchase of U.S. transport planes. The Indian delegation to the United States was considering the purchase of U.S. transport planes.

AFGHAN MP'S VISIT INDIAN AIRPORT

Moscov, Nov. 15.—The Afghan delegation visited the Indian airport in New Delhi today to discuss the problems of the Afghan transport system. The Afghan delegation visited the Indian airport in New Delhi today to discuss the problems of the Afghan transport system. The Afghan delegation visited the Indian airport in New Delhi today to discuss the problems of the Afghan transport system. The Afghan delegation visited the Indian airport in New Delhi today to discuss the problems of the Afghan transport system.

AFGHANISTAN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS

Kabul, Nov. 15.—The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships.

AFGHANISTAN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS

Kabul, Nov. 15.—The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships.

AFGHANISTAN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS

Kabul, Nov. 15.—The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships.

AFGHANISTAN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS

Kabul, Nov. 15.—The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships.

AFGHANISTAN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS

Kabul, Nov. 15.—The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships.

AFGHANISTAN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS

Kabul, Nov. 15.—The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships. The Afghan Golf Federation has announced the results of the Afghan Golf Championships.