KABUL, Dec. 29 — A report from Peshawar in Central Pakistan states that a large pipe was held in suspension in the vicinity of the Khozestan province by a group of workers who were protesting against the terms of their employment.

A spokesman for the National Labor Organization, which represents the union of the Khozestan workers, said that the workers were demanding better conditions and higher wages.

The spokesman added that the workers were planning to continue their protest until their demands were met.
