Kennedy Calls For United Europe With
U.S. Partnership

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26, President Kennedy made it clear today for a United Europe with a U.S. partnership.

"The President made an unambiguously strong statement," said a European official
in Paris.

A statement on the subject was equally strong in Brussels.

"The Kennedy
statement,"
the official said, "is the most important thing that has happened in Europe in recent months."

The President
made it clear that he regarded
a United Europe
as a possible alternative to the NATO
alliance.

"I believe," he said, "that a European Union is possible and desirable."
Encouraging Results Of Fight Against Colonialism

By KRATAK

CONTINUOUS efforts have been made of late to get the fact in the people's minds that the colonialism has been fundamentally condemned by the people of all nations. It is now recognized as the most important task of the world to get rid of colonialism. The question of colonialism is of utmost importance, and it is the duty of all of us to work for the complete elimination of colonialism. The struggle against colonialism is a noble and holy task, and it is the duty of all of us to work for its complete success.
