South Africa Not To Take Part In Discussions

CAYENNE, July 16 (AP)—South Africa, the former Union of South Africa, has decided not to participate in discussions on Portuguese and South African policies, according to the United Nations Security Council.

The Security Council met on Monday to consider demands of the African nations for consent action on the situation in Portuguese territories and South Africa's recent events. The situation in South Africa and Portuguese territories has been under discussion at the United Nations General Assembly.

The move by South Africa is seen as a reaction to the inclusion of the issue on the agenda of the General Assembly. South Africa withdrew from the United Nations in 1961 over its apartheid policies and is not represented in the General Assembly.

The Security Council is a principal organ of the United Nations, responsible for maintaining international peace and security.

KABUL, July 17.—A jirga, or grand council, in the North-West Frontier Province of Pakistan has criticized recent bombing raids by Pakistani forces in Afghanistan.

The jirga, comprising representatives from the local areas, condemned the bombings as a violation of Pakistani territory and called for an end to the hostilities.

Kashmir Is Not To Be Discussed In UN General Assembly

New Delhi, July 16.—Kashmir, the disputed territory between India and Pakistan, will not be discussed in the UN General Assembly, according to India.

India has been a vocal advocate of the UN's role in resolving the Kashmir dispute, and has been pressing for a special session of the General Assembly to discuss the issue.

The resolution may also address other issues, such as the ongoing conflict in Afghanistan and the region's need for economic and social development.
