CUBA CONFISCATES AMERICAN HAVANA EMBASSY BUILDING STATE DEPT. ASKS SWITZERLAND TO GET FULL REPORT ON ATTACK

WASHINGTON, Thursday, July 28, (AP) - The United States threatened to withdraw from Cuba on Wednesday, July 27, in response to an armed attack by Cubans on the American Embassy in Havana. The attack was said to have resulted in the death of four Americans and the injury of several others.

The U.S. government, citing concerns about the safety of its citizens, announced that it was evacuating non-essential personnel from the embassy. The move was intended to prevent further violence and to protect the lives of Americans abroad.

In a statement issued late Wednesday, the Department of State said: "We are0 committed to ensuring the safety and security of our citizens. The United States Embassy in Havana will be closed to the public until further notice."

The situation in Havana remains volatile, and the United States government is closely monitoring the situation. Foreign Minister of Cuba had earlier denounced the attack as an act of terrorism and vowed to cooperate with the American authorities to bring those responsible to justice.

The attack comes amid heightened tensions between the United States and Cuba, following recent developments in the Cuban economy and politics.

SECURITY COUNCIL URGED TO ORDER BAN ON ARMS SUPPLY TO PORTUGAL

UNITED NATIONS, Thursday, July 28, (AP) — The United Nations Security Council is being urged to adopt a resolution calling for a ban on arms supplies to Portugal. The resolution, which is expected to be presented by the United States, is intended to prevent Portugal from acquiring weapons from other countries, which could be used to destabilize the region.

The United States has been working with other countries to persuade them to support the resolution. The United Kingdom, France, and Germany are expected to support the resolution, but some countries, including China and Russia, are expected to oppose it.

The resolution is expected to be adopted by the Security Council in the coming weeks. The resolution would be the first time that the Security Council has adopted a resolution calling for a ban on arms supplies to a country.
