CERTAIN PROJECTS FINANCED BY USSR DURING 2ND PLAN AMENDED

KABUL, July 31—The previous decisions of the two countries to lend money to the USSR during the 2nd Plan have been amended. The following projects have been proposed in the new plans:

1. Assistance to the construction of the Moscow-Kabul Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.
2. Construction of the Kabul-Herat Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.
3. Construction of the Herat-Kabul Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.

The Moscow treaty was signed by the two countries to lend money to the USSR during the 2nd Plan. The treaty has been amended to include the following:

1. Assistance to the construction of the Moscow-Kabul Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.
2. Construction of the Kabul-Herat Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.
3. Construction of the Herat-Kabul Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.

The Moscow treaty was signed by the two countries to lend money to the USSR during the 2nd Plan. The treaty has been amended to include the following:

1. Assistance to the construction of the Moscow-Kabul Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.
2. Construction of the Kabul-Herat Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.
3. Construction of the Herat-Kabul Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.

The Moscow treaty was signed by the two countries to lend money to the USSR during the 2nd Plan. The treaty has been amended to include the following:

1. Assistance to the construction of the Moscow-Kabul Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.
2. Construction of the Kabul-Herat Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.
3. Construction of the Herat-Kabul Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.

The Moscow treaty was signed by the two countries to lend money to the USSR during the 2nd Plan. The treaty has been amended to include the following:

1. Assistance to the construction of the Moscow-Kabul Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.
2. Construction of the Kabul-Herat Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.
3. Construction of the Herat-Kabul Road, which was approved in the 2nd Plan.
SEVERE EARTHQUAKE HITS SKOPJE
CITY OF YUGOSLAVIA
6000 To 8000 Feared Dead And Injured

(From page 1)

The question of nuclear test ban and a weapons agreement is one of the most important issues facing the world today. The peace movement is pressing for a ban on nuclear tests and a reduction in nuclear weapons. The United Nations is also working to strengthen its role in promoting international peace and security.

Jirga Urges Release Of Pakistani Prisoner

KABUL, July 27—A jirga, or tribal meeting, in the city of Kabul, said that the government should release a Pakistani prisoner who has been detained for several months.

THE WEATHER

KABUL TIMES

HIS MAJESTY LAUDS TEST BAN ACCORD
Premier Terms Agreement As Positive Step Toward Relaxeation Of Tensions

KARMAH, July 27—His Majesty the King was reported to have praised the agreement between the three countries on a nuclear test ban.

Red Cross Sends Message To Yugoslav

KABUL, July 27—A Red Cross delegation arrived in Kabul to provide medical aid to the victims of the earthquake in Yugoslavia.

U.S. Reacts Drifting Of New Syrian Satellite

WASHINGTON, July 27—The U.S. government has decided not to react to the launch of a new Syrian satellite, as it does not consider it a threat to national security.

CLASSIFIED

ADVT:
"ARIANA"
ANNOUNCES SERVICES

KABUL

1,000 Bodies Recovered From Skopje,
Toll Feared To Go Up To Thousands

KARACHI THURSDAYS

25th July 1962

For Pakistanis, the event was a tragic reminder of the human cost of war. The government has expressed its condolences and offered assistance to the affected families. The relief efforts are ongoing, and the country is working to provide aid and support to those in need.