8-5-1963

Kabul Times (August 5, 1963, vol. 2, no. 132)

Bakhtar News Agency
KABUL TIMES

Dr. Yousuf Meets Chinese Delegates

KABUL, Monday, August 6

Mr. Han Ming, the Chinese ambassador to the Soviet Union, arrived in Kabul yesterday to meet Dr. Yousuf, the Prime Minister of Afghanistan. Mr. Han Ming is accompanied by a large delegation of Chinese officials, including the directors of various government offices and scientific institutions.

Mr. Han Ming had been in diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union since 1949. He is a well-known figure in Chinese politics and has been involved in numerous high-level negotiations with other countries. His visit to Afghanistan is expected to strengthen the already strong ties between the two countries.

Mr. Yousuf expressed his gratitude for the visit and promised to work closely with Mr. Han Ming to further improve the relationship between the two nations. The two leaders also discussed various issues of mutual interest, including economic cooperation, cultural exchange, and defense.

The visit is part of a wider effort by the Chinese government to establish closer ties with the countries of the region. China has been actively expanding its influence in Central Asia, and its relationship with Afghanistan is seen as a key part of this strategy.

Dr. Yousuf Meets Chinese Delegates

KABUL, Monday, August 6

Mr. Han Ming, the Chinese ambassador to the Soviet Union, arrived in Kabul yesterday to meet Dr. Yousuf, the Prime Minister of Afghanistan. Mr. Han Ming is accompanied by a large delegation of Chinese officials, including the directors of various government offices and scientific institutions.

Mr. Han Ming had been in diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union since 1949. He is a well-known figure in Chinese politics and has been involved in numerous high-level negotiations with other countries. His visit to Afghanistan is expected to strengthen the already strong ties between the two countries.

Mr. Yousuf expressed his gratitude for the visit and promised to work closely with Mr. Han Ming to further improve the relationship between the two nations. The two leaders also discussed various issues of mutual interest, including economic cooperation, cultural exchange, and defense.

The visit is part of a wider effort by the Chinese government to establish closer ties with the countries of the region. China has been actively expanding its influence in Central Asia, and its relationship with Afghanistan is seen as a key part of this strategy.
TEXT OF DR. ZIAYEE'S SPEECH BEFORE EDUCATIONAL DIRECTORS

AT A GLANCE

EXTRANATIONAL SERVICES

MONDAY

First English Program

10:45 a.m. A.M. 45 Minutes

Second English Program

12:00 noon A.M. 75 Minutes

Dr. Khud, Dean of the Colle

nes, Ministry of Science, Tech

ology, Deputy Director of the

Analytical Laboratory, Department of Energy Commission, stated

ANALYSIS OF THE FOREIGN TRADE OF AFGHANISTAN

Trends in Total Trade:

During the past ten years, total volume of exports Afghanistan have been nearly stable at an annual average of 15 million dollars in 1961, 16 million dollars in 1962, 17 million dollars in 1963, and 18 million dollars in 1964. Imports have risen from 25 million dollars in 1961, 27 million dollars in 1962, 29 million dollars in 1963, and 30 million dollars in 1964. The balance of payments for the country is thus still in a deficit.

For the better area of the country, the trade balance is still in a red. In the recent years, the trade balance has been reduced from 20 million dollars in 1961, 15 million dollars in 1962, 14 million dollars in 1963, and 10 million dollars in 1964. The balance of payments for the country is thus still in a deficit.

The United Nations Conference on Trade and Development has emphasized the need for the transfer of technology to developing countries. This has provided a stimulus for the development of new technologies and the improvement of existing technologies. The United States Conference on International Trade and Development has emphasized the role of technology transfer in the development of new technologies and the improvement of existing technologies. The United Nations Conference on International Trade and Development has emphasized the role of technology transfer in the development of new technologies and the improvement of existing technologies.

Henceforth is recognized that the establishment of international financial institutions for all the world's countries is of the utmost importance. The United Nations Conference on International Trade and Development has emphasized the role of international financial institutions in the development of new technologies and the improvement of existing technologies. The United Nations Conference on International Trade and Development has emphasized the role of international financial institutions in the development of new technologies and the improvement of existing technologies.

Free Exchange

Rates At Da

Afghanistan Bank

KABUL, August 5—The following rates of exchange are in effect at the Afghanistan Bank in Kabul, August 5, 1965.

1 AFGHANIS = 0.516 American dollar
1 AFGHANIS = 0.516 British pound
1 AFGHANIS = 0.516 French franc
1 AFGHANIS = 0.516 German mark
1 AFGHANIS = 0.516 Japanese yen

1 AFGHANIS = 0.516 Canadian dollar
1 AFGHANIS = 0.516 Australian dollar
1 AFGHANIS = 0.516 New Zealand dollar
1 AFGHANIS = 0.516 Swiss franc

KABUL TIMES

August 5, 1965

ADVERTISER

Compiled by:

Pharmacies

Foreign Trade Commission

Important Telephones:

Azad Afghan Airlines

Dep. 46, A.R.

WASSIS, Aug. 5, Officials of the Foreign Trade Com mission of Afghanistan stated that the country's exports have been rising steadily in recent years, and that the country's economic situation is improving.

Agreement Reported Between Indonesia, Philippine And Malaya Over Malaysia

INDONESIA, Malaya and the Philippines, after a week-long conference, were set Monday to seal agreements on the formation of Malaysia and Malayan unity in Southeast Asia. The historic meeting proved the way for co-operation among the three states of Malaysia origin and strengthened their security against subversion. It will end the hostility between Indonesia and Malaya, and help ensure peace in the area.

The three foreign ministers meeting for five days over the question of how to bring about the formation of a Malay Union, were M. Djalal (Indonesia), T. Onn (Malaya) and Carlos P. Garcia (Philippines).

The meetings were attended by Indonesian and Malayan delegations, and also by the Philippine delegation led by the Philippine foreign secretary. The ministers concluded the conference with a formal agreement to the formation of a Malay Union.

The agreement was sealed by the three foreign ministers in a meeting attended by the delegations. The agreement provides for the formation of a Malay Union, which will consist of the three countries.

The agreement also provides for the establishment of a Malay Union Council, which will be composed of the three foreign ministers and their representatives from the three countries. The council will be responsible for the implementation of the agreement.