The French Parliamentary delegation yesterday visited the United Nations Headquarters in New York to attend the plenary session of the General Assembly. The delegation comprises 25 members of the French Parliament, including the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Mr. Andre Bettencourt.

The delegation was welcomed by Mr. Trygve Lie, the Secretary-General of the United Nations, and Mr. U Thant, the President of the General Assembly. The delegation then proceeded to the Assembly Hall, where they were seated in the front row of the audience. The French delegation was met with a standing ovation from the other delegations.

During their visit, the French delegation met with several high-ranking United Nations officials, including Mr. U Thant and Mr. Trygve Lie. The delegation also visited the United Nations Library and the United Nations Museum.

The visit of the French delegation is seen as a significant gesture of support for the United Nations. The French delegation is expected to return to Paris on Sunday, after participating in the plenary session of the General Assembly.

THE RELEVANCE OF DEVELOPMENT TO DEMOCRACY

By Yousuf Ch. Khan

There are two basic disciplines that form the basis of any democratic society, namely, the economic and the socio-political. The economic discipline must always be kept in mind in order to develop the society and the socio-political discipline must be kept in mind in order to develop the society.

The economic discipline is concerned with the distribution of resources and the socio-political discipline is concerned with the distribution of power. The economic discipline must be kept in mind in order to develop the society and the socio-political discipline must be kept in mind in order to develop the society.

THE TRAINING OF HORSES FOR "BUZKASHI"

By Akbar Khan

The training of horses for "buzkashi" is a traditional sport in Afghanistan. The horses are trained to pull the carcass of a goat and to carry it to the center of the field, where it is used as a target for other horses. The horses are trained to work in pairs, with each horse pulling the goat in opposite directions.
