President Brezhnev To Arrive Saturday For State Visit

KABUL, October 18 — President Leonid I. Brezhnev of the Soviet Union is to arrive in Kabul at 11 a.m. Saturday for a five-day state visit to Afghanistan.

The Soviet statesman will be accompanied by Mr. K. Kh. Turashinov, Chairman of the Council of Ministers of the Mongolian People’s Republic; Mr. L. V. Alikperov, First Deputy Chairman of the State Committee on Economic Co-operation; Mr. K. G. Lapin and Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs, N. F. Anisimov, USSR Ambassador in Afghanistan who is also a member of the Uzbek Soviet party.

Brezhnev, who was born in Ukraine in 1906 is among the veteran Soviet statesmen and Communist Party members. He has finished his mission on metallurgy and land organization and reclamation. He joined the Communist Party in 1916 and was the secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Moldova in 1916. In 1932 he became a member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. From 1946 to 1951 he was the Secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. In 1952 he was elected to the Presidium of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. In 1954 he became a member of the Presidium of the Central Committee of the CPSU. In 1956 he became President of the Central Committee of the CPSU. In 1956 he became President of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the USSR.

In 1943 Mr. Brezhnev was given the rank of major general and in 1945 that of lieutenant general. During the war he was a political commissar with the army in the field as a Deputy Chief of the Political Department of the Southern Front. Chief of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union, in 1932 he became a member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union.

Brezhnev’s itinerary includes visits to the capital, the Ministry of Planning, the Order of Bogden Khmelnitsky masonic and the Order of the Red Star. In addition, he is scheduled to visit the President’s Palace.

The Soviet delegation includes an official of the Ministry of Planning, an economic advisor, an expert of the Ministry of Agriculture and a military attaché.

The Soviet delegation includes an expert of the Ministry of Planning, an economic advisor, an expert of the Ministry of Agriculture and a military attaché.

Afghan-Soviet Annual Meeting On Plant Pests

SOVIET DELEGATION ARRIVES IN KABUL

KABUL, October 18 — Mr. Brezhnev and Mr. Alitov, the Soviet Minister of Agriculture, arrived in Kabul yesterday by air to attend the conference on plant pests. This year, Afghanistan suffered from an unusually severe outbreak of pests. The conference is being held in Kabul.

On May 10, the Conference on Plant Pests was opened in Moscow under the auspices of the Ministry of Agriculture of the USSR. The conference was attended by experts from the ministry of agriculture of the Soviet Union and the USSR and the ministry of agriculture of the USSR.

The conference was organized and financed by the Ministry of Agriculture of the USSR and the USSR. The conference was attended by experts from the ministry of agriculture of the Soviet Union and the USSR and the ministry of agriculture of the USSR.

The conference was attended by experts from the ministry of agriculture of the Soviet Union and the USSR and the ministry of agriculture of the USSR.

Delegates To Asian Highway Meeting Arrive In Kabul

KABUL, October 18 — The Minister of Transport, Mr. Sharif, arrived in Kabul yesterday to attend the conference of the Asian Highway Meeting. Mr. Sharif is scheduled to meet with Afghan Minister of Transport, Mr. Afridi, to discuss the progress of the Afghan highway project.

KABUL, October 18 — The Minister of Transport, Mr. Sharif, arrived in Kabul yesterday to attend the conference of the Asian Highway Meeting. Mr. Sharif is scheduled to meet with Afghan Minister of Transport, Mr. Afridi, to discuss the progress of the Afghan highway project.

ITALY’S THIRD WORLD HIGHEST DAM COLLAPSES & GIANTIC FLOODS CRASH ONTO COMMUNITIES

BELLING, Italy, October 17 (AP) — Authorities reported Thursday night that 108 people were trapped inside the dam. The Vajont Dam near Hobart, the third largest dam in the world, had collapsed, causing a huge flood.

In the community of Mone, 2,000 people near the dam, the water has already risen to nearly 50 feet. In the town of Bressanone, 12 people are already dead.

The Vajont Dam near Hobart, New York, was completed in 1960. It is 500 feet tall and has a capacity of 3.2 billion cubic feet. The dam is 1,500 feet wide and 1,300 feet long.

The dam was built to store water for the Vajont River, which flows through the town of Bressanone.

Afghan Red Crescent Sends Message To Cuban Red Cross

KABUL, October 18 — The Afghan Red Crescent Society has sent a telegram to the Cuban Red Cross expressing concern over the drought in Cuba. The Afghan Red Crescent Society has sent a telegram to the Cuban Red Cross expressing concern over the drought in Cuba.

The telegram expresses concern over the drought in Cuba and asks for assistance in providing aid to the Cuban people.
AFGHANISTAN AND CHINA SIGN TRADE AGREEMENT FOR 5 YEARS

An agreement between the two countries for the exchange of goods and services was signed at the port of Callao, Spain. The agreement was witnessed by the Prime Minister of Afghanistan and the Prime Minister of China. The agreement covers a range of goods, including textiles, machinery, and agricultural products.

In Pakistan -

The President of Pakistan has returned to his country after a visit to the Soviet Union. During his visit, the President held discussions with Soviet President Brezhnev on a number of bilateral and regional issues. The President expressed his satisfaction with the visit and emphasized the importance of maintaining close relations with the Soviet Union.

African Envoys and Portugal to Hold Talks Next Wednesday

AGENDA

African Ambassadors and Portugal's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs are expected to hold talks next week. The agenda for the talks includes discussions on trade, investment, and cultural cooperation.

Africans Expected to Raise at U.N. South African Trial Issue

The issue of South African trials is expected to be raised by African diplomats at the United Nations. The African countries are concerned about the trials and are seeking international support to address the issue.

Press Restrictions

In Pakistan Lifted

The government has lifted press restrictions in Pakistan. The move is seen as a step towards improving press freedom and allowing the media to report on important issues.

USSR President Given Rousing Welcome in Kabul

His Majesty the King Greeting Soviet Leader

KABUL, Oct. 15 -

His Majesty the King, accompanied by the Prime Minister and other dignitaries, received the Soviet President with full honors at the airport. A gun salute and a civic reception were held in his honor.

CLASSIFIED ADTS

International Club

"DANCE"

The President of Afghanistan, accompanied by the Prime Minister, has arrived in Kabul to attend a conference. The President is expected to meet with other leaders from the region to discuss regional issues.

The weather

WEEKEND - Weather

The weather is expected to be cloudy with the possibility of light rain. Temperatures are expected to remain moderate throughout the weekend.

The Kabul Times

KABUL TIMES

KABUL TIMES

THE WEATHER

URBAN - Weather

The weather is expected to be cloudy with the possibility of light rain. Temperatures are expected to remain moderate throughout the day.

Royal Audience

KABUL, Oct. 12 -

President of Afghanistan, accompanied by the Prime Minister and other dignitaries, has arrived in Kabul to attend a conference. The President is expected to meet with other leaders from the region to discuss regional issues.

Iranian Affairs

KABUL, Oct. 12 -

The Afghan government has lifted press restrictions in the country. The move is seen as a step towards improving press freedom and allowing the media to report on important issues.

Macmillan Not To Continue As Premier

Ailing Tory Leader Tells Party About His Plans

This news of Prime Minister Macmillan's resignation has raised concerns about the future of the Conservative Party. The party is expected to face a leadership crisis in the coming months.

KABUL TIMES

KABUL TIMES

KABUL TIMES

THE WEATHER

URBAN - Weather

The weather is expected to be cloudy with the possibility of light rain. Temperatures are expected to remain moderate throughout the day.

Royal Audience

KABUL, Oct. 12 -

President of Afghanistan, accompanied by the Prime Minister and other dignitaries, has arrived in Kabul to attend a conference. The President is expected to meet with other leaders from the region to discuss regional issues.

Iranian Affairs

KABUL, Oct. 12 -

The Afghan government has lifted press restrictions in the country. The move is seen as a step towards improving press freedom and allowing the media to report on important issues.

Macmillan Not To Continue As Premier

Ailing Tory Leader Tells Party About His Plans

This news of Prime Minister Macmillan's resignation has raised concerns about the future of the Conservative Party. The party is expected to face a leadership crisis in the coming months.