10-21-1963

Kabul Times (October 21, 1963, vol. 2 no. 192)

Bakhtar News Agency

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes

Part of the International and Area Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
http://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes/459

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Digitized Newspaper Archives at DigitalCommons@UNO. It has been accepted for inclusion in Kabul Times by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@UNO. For more information, please contact unodigitalcommons@unomaha.edu.
Jirgas Held In Central, Northern Pakistan

KENYA'S INDEPENDENCE PROCLAIMED

By permission of the Government of Kenya, the Times was allowed to attend the first meeting of a rural council in the Central Province. The Times correspondent, Mr. Kenyatta, attended the meeting and wrote that it was an important event in the history of Kenya.

Mr. Kenyatta, who was accompanied by a delegation from the government of Kenya, addressed the meeting and said that the purpose of the council was to discuss local affairs and to promote the welfare of the community.

The council was attended by a large number of people, including farmers, school teachers, and traders. The meeting was held in a large hall and was chaired by Mr. Kenyatta.

After the meeting, Mr. Kenyatta said that the council was a symbol of the growing independence of Kenya and that it would continue to play an important role in the development of the country.

PROFESSOR KENNEDY'S ADVICE TO THE CHINESE

In his recent speech, President Kennedy expressed his views on the nuclear arms race and the need for peaceful coexistence.

He said that the United States and the Soviet Union should work together to reach a peaceful resolution of the nuclear arms race. He also emphasized the importance of international cooperation and the need to avoid any form of confrontation.

The President said that the United States was fully committed to maintaining a strong and effective defense. He also stressed the importance of maintaining a strong economy and the need to promote opportunities for all Americans.

KENYA'S INDEPENDENCE PROCLAIMED

By permission of the Government of Kenya, the Times was allowed to attend the first meeting of a rural council in the Central Province. The Times correspondent, Mr. Kenyatta, attended the meeting and wrote that it was an important event in the history of Kenya.

Mr. Kenyatta, who was accompanied by a delegation from the government of Kenya, addressed the meeting and said that the purpose of the council was to discuss local affairs and to promote the welfare of the community.

The council was attended by a large number of people, including farmers, school teachers, and traders. The meeting was held in a large hall and was chaired by Mr. Kenyatta.

After the meeting, Mr. Kenyatta said that the council was a symbol of the growing independence of Kenya and that it would continue to play an important role in the development of the country.

PROFESSOR KENNEDY'S ADVICE TO THE CHINESE

In his recent speech, President Kennedy expressed his views on the nuclear arms race and the need for peaceful coexistence.

He said that the United States and the Soviet Union should work together to reach a peaceful resolution of the nuclear arms race. He also emphasized the importance of international cooperation and the need to avoid any form of confrontation.

The President said that the United States was fully committed to maintaining a strong and effective defense. He also stressed the importance of maintaining a strong economy and the need to promote opportunities for all Americans.
V. German Parliamentary Committee
To Investigate War-Traffoing Problems

KABUL, March 12

The German Parliamentary Committee for the Investigation of War-Traffoing, on a tour of Afghanistan, has expressed its satisfaction with the measures taken by the Afghan Government to prevent war-traffoing.

The Committee, which is composed of representatives from various Parliaments, arrived in Kabul on March 10 for a three-day visit. During its stay, the Committee visited various war-traffoing centers in and around Kabul and held discussions with Afghan officials.

In his opening address, the Committee Chairman, Dr. Karl Hoffmann, congratulated the Afghan Government on its efforts to combat war-traffoing and expressed its readiness to cooperate with the Afghan authorities in this respect.

The Committee, which is expected to submit its report to the Parliaments of the member countries, will also discuss other issues of common concern.

---

Air Routes

ARRIVALS

KABUL: Kabul Times

DEPARTURES

KABUL: Kabul Times

ARRIVAL

KABUL: Kabul Times

DEPARTURE

KABUL: Kabul Times

---

International

Arrivals

KABUL: Kabul Times

Departures

KABUL: Kabul Times

---

Important Telephone Numbers

KABUL: Kabul Times

---

Report on International Asian Highway (Zone III)

KABUL: Kabul Times

---

Health

KABUL: Kabul Times

---

Exchange Rates

KABUL: Kabul Times