Hierophany (2019), dir. Kevin Contento

Three boys are hunting rabbits in the sugar cane fields that have just been harvested. On their quest for food they encounter a manifestation of the sacred, an eagle sitting atop a utility pole. The eagle is everything you would expect from a manifestation of the sacred. Unfortunately, one of the boys shoots and kills the bird. And now the sacred, the one thing that might have changed their lives, is lost to them.
