India Gains Indio Three Days To Pull Out Of Chinese Area Near Border; Shastri Replies

NEW DELHI, Sept. 15. (Reuters) — India has given China three days to pull out of an area near the border, following a meeting with Pakistan on the issue. Shastri, India's foreign minister, said that if the Chinese do not comply, India will take action.

Shastri's statement came after a meeting with Pakistan's foreign minister, Khurshid Mahmood, in which Pakistan agreed to withdraw its forces.

U Thant said that the Chinese had a chance to pull out of the area, which is close to the border. However, the Chinese have refused to comply, insisting on a longer period for withdrawal.

U Thant said that unless the Chinese agree to pull out within the next three days, India would consider taking action. He added that the situation was serious and that further action would be taken if the Chinese did not comply.

The Chinese have not yet responded to U Thant's offer, and it remains to be seen whether they will accept the offer or continue to resist.
