Mediation In Algerian Leaders' Dispute

Ben Bella Accepts Arab League Secretary's Offer

ALGIERS, July 8—The Algerian Information Minister, Mr. Mohamed Hadj Boudiaf, yesterday said that the Algerian Government was ready to accept mediation by Mr. Abdal Khalique El-Araby, the Arab League Secretary-General, in the dispute between the Algerian leaders.

Mr. Boudiaf made the statement before leaving Algiers for Baghdad, where he and another Minister are to hold talks with Mr. Ben Bella, the deposed President, of Algeria.

Mr. Ben Bella, has, it is learnt, already accepted the mediation offer.

Rabat Adds Secret Talks

Rabat adds: Secret talks aimed at closing the rift between Algerian nationalist leaders are expected to start in Rabat today.

Mr. Ben Bella, who has been holding talks in Rabat, with President Houari Boumedienne of the United Arab Republic, the third foreign power in Algiers, is expected to meet Mr. Ben Bella today, together with the Minister of State, Mr. Mohamed El-Ouahidi.

No Crisis

M. Saad Dahlab, Algerian Pro- vident Government Foreign Min- ister, said in a broadcast that there was no crisis between the two countries. "It is a misunderstanding."

Speaking in the Arabic service of Algerian Radio, he said: "The only misunderstanding is the one we have with Washington. They do not understand us and we do not understand them."

Mr. Dahlab, "In the last years the people will decide."

M. Dahlab said that elections for a National Assembly would be held at the beginning of August, and that the date would be announced soon.

M. Dahlab described the National Liberation Army, which is in the centre of the political div- sion in the country, as the biggest danger to the stability of the government and the country itself. He called on all citizens to support the government and to help its work.

Calls for a return to normalcy were made by the President, who said that the country had a duty to move forward and that all its institutions must be used for the benefit of the country.

M. Dahlab said that the talks between the two countries would continue and that he expected to meet the Algerian leader soon.

The talks between Algeria and the United Arab Republic are expected to start today in Rabat.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING

The Conference of Provincial Education Officers, which opened here last Saturday, provided a good opportunity for the Ministry of Education to exchange views on the principal problems facing both sides advancing and expanding education throughout the country.

As pointed out by Dr. Papal, the Ministry of Education, in his opening speech, one of the main targets of the Ministry in the coming year is the expansion of the Second Plan to open more vocational schools. The main country like Afghanistan it is of utmost importance to train people in that field so that they can be useful in the community where they live. First course, the question of teaching them how to read and write and then to make them agriculturists of the particular communities.

The second kind of education is in service of those who need to keep their economic level in a certain way and to work for furthering the education of the country. And let us not forget that the country can work in education and are sent either to schools as a main form of education. But, the second plan to the Capital, the opening of vocational schools and the country has played useful and positive reasons and the Education Department through the initiative to expand further this type of education is worthy of praise.

Also the Directors during their current session with concentration on expanding the number of literate persons and find more methods and practical steps to reach these objectives, which the Ministry of Education is

The present curriculum of the Primary Teachers' Training School (the Normal School) as it may be considered today, appears to be quite effective. But this statement is not sufficient for the training of teachers. The Ministry of Education is working on this subject and will present its findings in the near future.
