Second Plan Draft Approved
By Cabinet Ministers

A spokesmen of the Ministry of Planning said yesterday the First Plan was practically completed under the guidance of Prime Minister Yousuf Khan, the direct co-operation of the people and the Government, and with the uninterested financial and technical assistance of friendly countries.

He said the draft of the Second Plan presented to the Cabinet on March 6 and approved, it could now go to the National Assembly for final approval.

The spokesmen said the Second Plan included the following over-riding objectives:

1. Improvement in the standard of living of the people.
2. Development of industries and agriculture.
3. Strengthening of the help system.
4. Promotion of exports.
5. Development of human resources.

Details of the Plan will be published after its presentation to the National Assembly.

Wazir Tribesmen
To Fight For Freedom

KABUL, Mar. 11.—A grand peace meeting of the Wazirs and the tribesmen has resolved to keep the flag of the Wazir State flying high at all costs and to continue the struggle for the recovery of the Wazir State from foreign domination.

KARSHUN, Mar. 11.—A grand peace meeting of the Wazir State and the tribesmen has resolved to keep the flag of the Wazir State flying high at all costs and to continue the struggle for the recovery of the Wazir State from foreign domination.

Reports from Quetta, Central Bureau, Pravda, and the Moscow newspapers say that the peace talks attended by representatives of the Afghan government, the former rulers of the Afghan state of Baluchistan and the government of the Wazir State, were discussed in a meeting held in Quetta.

Dr. Khan, in a speech delivered at the meeting, said the peace talks were discussed in detail and the government of the Wazir State was invited to attend the meeting.

Mr. Amin Khan, one of the prominent figures of the Afghan-Wazir State, said that the peace talks were agreed upon and the government of the Wazir State was invited to attend the meeting.

Mr. Daud Khan, one of the prominent figures of the Afghan-Wazir State, said that the peace talks were agreed upon and the government of the Wazir State was invited to attend the meeting.

Mr. Daud Khan further said that the peace talks were agreed upon and the government of the Wazir State was invited to attend the meeting.

AFGHANISTAN'S MORAL OBLIGATIONS

By R. A. Faraqma

The latest Soviet agreement with the U.S. to sign a "peace" treaty in Dushanbe is a misnomer in so far as it is concerned with the moral obligations of the people of Pakhtuns tries, millions of them, to the rest of the world. The people of Pakhtuns try's have never had any moral obligations to the rest of the world. It is evident that Pakistan and the United States have not considered the moral obligations of the people of Pakhtuns try's to the rest of the world. The Pakistan government has not considered the moral obligations of the people of Pakhtuns try's to the rest of the world. The United States has not considered the moral obligations of the people of Pakhtuns try's to the rest of the world. The people of Pakhtuns try's have never had any moral obligations to the rest of the world.

But the people of Pakhtuns try's have a moral obligation to the rest of the world. The people of Pakhtuns try's have a moral obligation to the rest of the world. The people of Pakhtuns try's have a moral obligation to the rest of the world. The people of Pakhtuns try's have a moral obligation to the rest of the world.
