Expansion of Kabul City Planned
U.S.S.R. TO HELP BUILD PRE-FAB FAB

KABUL, APRIL 13—An agreement of cooperation in the expansion of Kabul and the construction of pre-fabricated housing units was signed yesterday by Mr. Abdulah Mansoori, President of Afghanistan, and Mr. S. G. Karaganov, Chairman of the Delegation of the U.S.S.R., who is representative of the U.S.S.R. Government, and Mr. G. W. Davis, Director-General of the United States of America, at a ceremony held in the Olympic Stadium in Kabul.

The agreement was signed in the presence of the Afghan and Soviet delegations and was witnessed by the Afghan and Soviet heads of state.

Under the terms of the agreement, the Soviet Union will provide technical and financial assistance for the construction of pre-fabricated housing units in Kabul.

Mr. Abdulah Mansoori said that the Afghan Government was grateful for the assistance provided by the Soviet Union and hoped that the agreement would contribute to the development of the city of Kabul.

Mr. S. G. Karaganov expressed the hope that the agreement would be a step towards the strengthening of the ties of friendship and cooperation between the two countries.

The agreement is expected to be implemented within the next two years.

The ceremony was attended by a large number of Afghan and Soviet officials and representatives of other countries.

When Arab leaders met recently in Cairo to plan ways to forward the Arab cause, it was agreed that the importance of the Arab nations in the world has been underestimated. The Arab leaders felt that the Arab nations have been neglected by the western powers and that the Arab nations should be given a greater role in international politics.

The Arab leaders also agreed that the Arab nations should cooperate more closely with each other in order to achieve their common goals. They felt that the Arab nations should work together to achieve a fair and just solution to the Palestinian problem.

The Arab leaders also discussed the need for the Arab nations to support the Palestinian cause and to provide economic and military aid to the Palestinian people. They felt that the Arab nations should also support the Palestinian people in their struggle for self-determination.

In conclusion, the Arab leaders agreed that the Arab nations should work together to achieve their common goals and to support the Palestinian cause. They felt that the Arab nations should cooperate more closely with each other in order to achieve a fair and just solution to the Palestinian problem.

The meeting concluded with a call for the Arab nations to support the Palestinian cause and to work together for a just solution to the Palestinian problem.
