World Body to Supervise
Berlin Access Routes

U.S.A. MAY PROPOSE INCLUSION
OF NEUTRAL NATIONS

WASHINGTON, Apr. 11 (A.P.) - The United States is thinking in terms of proposing neutral nation representation on any international authority which might be set up to supervise the access routes to Berlin, officials here said. The United States officials believe that it would be possible to complete such an authority, which would include neutral nations, by May 20, the officials said.

There was another point and it is my duty to state, that for the present, while we are considering the problem, we are not proposing to act, but we are going to make some suggestion to the United States, which will be ready to be acted upon. On all questions of this kind, we are ready to consider it in detail, and we are also ready to make a proposal to the United States, which will be ready to be acted upon.

Series of proposals.

The United States officials would be glad to receive such a proposal, and would be ready to consider it in detail, and would be ready to make a proposal to the United States, which will be ready to be acted upon.

Freedom of Information: The Role of The Professional Journalist

By Z.A. Iqbal

The participants of the Seminar on Freedom of Information, based on the resolution of the International Congress of Editors in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, 1978, pointed out that the right to freedom of information is a basic human right which should be exercised by all members of society. They emphasized that this right is not only a moral right but also a legal right, and that it is essential for the development of democracy and the rule of law. They also pointed out that the media, especially the press, have a great responsibility in exercising this right and in upholding the principles of freedom of information.

A Glance At Afghanistan Cultural Heritage

By MOHAMMAD

The Seminar on Cultural Heritage also highlighted the importance of protecting and preserving the cultural heritage of Afghanistan. They pointed out that Afghanistan is rich in cultural history and that it is essential to preserve these cultural treasures for future generations. The participants also emphasized the need for international cooperation in this regard.

Gromyko's Useful Talks With Yugoslav Leaders In Belgrade

Belgrade, Apr. 21 (TASS) - Mr. Andrei Gromyko, the Soviet Ambassador to Yugoslavia, left Belgrade today after a useful series of talks with Yugoslav leaders.

U.A.R. Minister's Talks in U.S.A.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 20 (AP) - Dr. A. El-Salim, U.A.R. Minister of Foreign Affairs, arrived in Washington today for a week-long visit.

The White House officials were quoted as saying that Mr. Gromyko's visits to the U.S. had been arranged by the United Nations Security Council, and that his visit would coincide with the United Nations special session on UN peacekeeping operations.

The meeting to last three days, when the two delegations are expected to discuss the latest developments in the Middle East, will be of great significance.

Cairo

The meeting will be held in the Egyptian presidential palace in Cairo.

The dramatic capture of Gen. Salan

ALGIERS, Apr. 21 (AP) - Gen. Ahmed Ben Bella, the President of the Republic of Algeria, was captured by forces loyal to the U.S.-backed military regime in the northern city of Algiers.

The capture of the general, who had been a key player in the Algerian war for independence, came as a shock to the international community.
