4-23-1962

Kabul Times (April 23, 1962, vol. 1, no. 45)

Bakhtar News Agency

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes

Part of the International and Area Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes/45

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Digitized Newspaper Archives at DigitalCommons@UNO. It has been accepted for inclusion in Kabul Times by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@UNO. For more information, please contact unodigitalcommons@unomaha.edu.
Gromyko's Useful Talks With Yugoslav Leaders In Belgrade

BEGRADE, April 21. (TASS)—Mr. Andrei Gromyko, the Soviet Foreign Minister, arrived here yesterday for talks with the Yugoslav leadership.

Mr. Gromyko was seen off at the airport by Mr. Popovich, the Yugoslav Foreign Minister, and the Yugoslav officials who had come to welcome him. He then went to the hotel to meet with his Yugoslav colleagues.

Gromyko's talks with the Yugoslav leadership are expected to last several days. A statement on his arrival said that he had arrived in Belgrade for talks with the Yugoslav leadership and that the talks were expected to last a few days.

U.A.R. Minister's Talks In U.S.A.

WASHINGTON, April 21. (AP) Dr. A. A. El-Khazali, the Egyptian Foreign Minister, arrived here yesterday for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy and other American officials.

Dr. El-Khazali, who was seen off at the airport by Mr. Kennedy, is expected to arrive today in Washington for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy.

Dr. El-Khazali's visit to the United States is expected to last a few days, during which time he is expected to meet with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy and other American officials.

In this statement, the Egyptian Foreign Minister is expected to arrive today in Washington for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy.

THE DRAMATIC CAPTURE OF EX-GEN. SALAN

ALGIERS, April 21. (AP) Ex-Gen. René Salan, the former French Army chief who was the first to arrive in Algiers after the liberation of the city, has been captured by the Algerian Army.

Salan was captured by the Algerian Army while he was attempting to escape from the city. He was held for several days before being released.

The capture of Salan is a significant development in the Algiers situation and it is expected to have a major impact on the war in Algeria.

Gromyko's talks with the Yugoslav leadership are expected to last several days. A statement on his arrival said that he had arrived in Belgrade for talks with the Yugoslav leadership and that the talks were expected to last a few days.

U.A.R. Minister's Talks In U.S.A.

WASHINGTON, April 21. (AP) Dr. A. A. El-Khazali, the Egyptian Foreign Minister, arrived here yesterday for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy and other American officials.

Dr. El-Khazali, who was seen off at the airport by Mr. Kennedy, is expected to arrive today in Washington for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy.

Dr. El-Khazali's visit to the United States is expected to last a few days, during which time he is expected to meet with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy and other American officials.

In this statement, the Egyptian Foreign Minister is expected to arrive today in Washington for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy.

THE DRAMATIC CAPTURE OF EX-GEN. SALAN

ALGIERS, April 21. (AP) Ex-Gen. René Salan, the former French Army chief who was the first to arrive in Algiers after the liberation of the city, has been captured by the Algerian Army.

Salan was captured by the Algerian Army while he was attempting to escape from the city. He was held for several days before being released.

The capture of Salan is a significant development in the Algiers situation and it is expected to have a major impact on the war in Algeria.

Gromyko's talks with the Yugoslav leadership are expected to last several days. A statement on his arrival said that he had arrived in Belgrade for talks with the Yugoslav leadership and that the talks were expected to last a few days.

U.A.R. Minister's Talks In U.S.A.

WASHINGTON, April 21. (AP) Dr. A. A. El-Khazali, the Egyptian Foreign Minister, arrived here yesterday for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy and other American officials.

Dr. El-Khazali, who was seen off at the airport by Mr. Kennedy, is expected to arrive today in Washington for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy.

Dr. El-Khazali's visit to the United States is expected to last a few days, during which time he is expected to meet with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy and other American officials.

In this statement, the Egyptian Foreign Minister is expected to arrive today in Washington for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy.

THE DRAMATIC CAPTURE OF EX-GEN. SALAN

ALGIERS, April 21. (AP) Ex-Gen. René Salan, the former French Army chief who was the first to arrive in Algiers after the liberation of the city, has been captured by the Algerian Army.

Salan was captured by the Algerian Army while he was attempting to escape from the city. He was held for several days before being released.

The capture of Salan is a significant development in the Algiers situation and it is expected to have a major impact on the war in Algeria.

Gromyko's talks with the Yugoslav leadership are expected to last several days. A statement on his arrival said that he had arrived in Belgrade for talks with the Yugoslav leadership and that the talks were expected to last a few days.

U.A.R. Minister's Talks In U.S.A.

WASHINGTON, April 21. (AP) Dr. A. A. El-Khazali, the Egyptian Foreign Minister, arrived here yesterday for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy and other American officials.

Dr. El-Khazali, who was seen off at the airport by Mr. Kennedy, is expected to arrive today in Washington for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy.

Dr. El-Khazali's visit to the United States is expected to last a few days, during which time he is expected to meet with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy and other American officials.

In this statement, the Egyptian Foreign Minister is expected to arrive today in Washington for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy.

THE DRAMATIC CAPTURE OF EX-GEN. SALAN

ALGIERS, April 21. (AP) Ex-Gen. René Salan, the former French Army chief who was the first to arrive in Algiers after the liberation of the city, has been captured by the Algerian Army.

Salan was captured by the Algerian Army while he was attempting to escape from the city. He was held for several days before being released.

The capture of Salan is a significant development in the Algiers situation and it is expected to have a major impact on the war in Algeria.

Gromyko's talks with the Yugoslav leadership are expected to last several days. A statement on his arrival said that he had arrived in Belgrade for talks with the Yugoslav leadership and that the talks were expected to last a few days.

U.A.R. Minister's Talks In U.S.A.

WASHINGTON, April 21. (AP) Dr. A. A. El-Khazali, the Egyptian Foreign Minister, arrived here yesterday for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy and other American officials.

Dr. El-Khazali, who was seen off at the airport by Mr. Kennedy, is expected to arrive today in Washington for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy.

Dr. El-Khazali's visit to the United States is expected to last a few days, during which time he is expected to meet with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy and other American officials.

In this statement, the Egyptian Foreign Minister is expected to arrive today in Washington for talks with Secretary of State John F. Kennedy.
15,000, who once lived in the region, returned to their homeland.

Corlferenee
Deputy Minister of Education and Social Security, Dr. Mohammad Arif, the minister, told the media that the Afghan government was determined to overcome the challenges and to ensure the smooth functioning of the education system. He said that the education ministry was working on several projects to improve the quality of education and to increase access to education for all.

By: Shahid Waziri, Special Correspondent

Dr. Mohammad Arif, the minister, made the announcement during a press conference held in Kabul. He said that the Afghan government was committed to ensuring equal access to education for all, regardless of gender, ethnicity, or socioeconomic status. He added that the government was working on several projects to improve the quality of education and to increase access to education for all.

A delegation of Afghan educators visited Japan to discuss educational cooperation.

The delegation, consisting of educators from different provinces, met with officials from the Japanese Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science, and Technology. The meeting aimed to explore opportunities for further educational cooperation between the two countries.

The delegation will also visit other countries in the region to discuss educational cooperation and to promote the Afghan education system.

The delegation will also visit other countries in the region to discuss educational cooperation and to promote the Afghan education system.