ADENAUER INVITED TO PARIS

De Gaulle's Move To Get European Political Union

PARIS, Apr. 30, (Reuter) — President de Gaulle yesterday disclosed the next move in his campaign to get a political union between the Six. The French Foreign Minister announced that the West German Chancellor, Dr. Konrad Adenauer, will pay a State visit to France from July 1 to July 6. This unusual honour to a statesman who is not the head of State and the moment when France is casting off its last colonial links, and when, a new Africa is looking for solid economic and political indications. The meeting of "The Six" Foreign Ministers in Paris on April 17, the Belgians and the Dutch practically refused to make a move on political, Union of the Six European Common Market countries.

Dr. Adenauer will tell Mr. de Gaulle, official sources indicate, that failure to set up a political European division at the psychological when France is cast off its last colonial links, and when, a new Africa is looking for solid economic and political indications. The Political Union of Europe, General de Gaulle, will emphasize to Dr. Adenauer, depends entirely on Franco-German co-operation, and this co-operation must be made concrete and institutional expression in the near future.

This will be Dr. Adenauer's sixth visit to France since 1951, but his first official State Visit. In Brussels, official circles interpreted the invitation as a personal gesture to Dr. Adenauer which also underlines the healthy state of Franco-German relations.

The invitation was issued six weeks ago, but the choice of the date was left to Dr. Adenauer, informed sources said.

Volkswagen Works May Rescind Price Rates

BONN, Apr. 28. (AP) — Europe's largest car manufacturer, the West German Volkswagen works, was yesterday said to be considering the price rise which came into effect on April 1st.

A decision on the raising of prices is expected to be announced today. The new model will now cost 3,850 marks instead of 3,250 while the export model will be 6,300 marks instead of 5,800 and the Cabriolet is now 6,800 marks instead of 5,300.

The price increase, announced for the home market only immediately after Bonn Economists Minister, Mr. Ludwig Erhard appeal for moderation, had caused considerable ill-feeling among the population.

Following the example of Minister Kennedy's "tough talk" to the British, Mr. Erhard at a meeting with West German car producers, appealed to that branch of the industry to lower the prices to the level prevailing before April 1st.

Before the heads of the car firms that followed Mr. Erhard's appeal for moderation, had caused considerable ill-feeling among the population.
