A view of the newly-opened cement factory at Ghur.

In the southwestern corner of the Afghan plains, a prosperous corner has been established. This is the result of the efforts of the Afghan people and the assistance of the United Nations and other international organizations. The area is now producing cement for the reconstruction of Afghanistan.

The prosperity of the region is due to the efforts of the Afghan government, which has encouraged industrial development. The government has provided financial assistance and technical advice to the companies operating in the area.

The Afghan people have also played a significant role in the development of the region. They have worked hard to ensure the success of the project.

The United Nations has played a significant role in the development of the region. The United Nations Development Program has provided financial assistance and technical advice to the companies operating in the area.

The region is now producing cement for the reconstruction of Afghanistan. This is a significant achievement for the Afghan people and the United Nations.

The United Nations is committed to helping Afghanistan recover from the effects of the war.
